Geography and Trade

Paul Krugman

Published jointly by
Leuven University Press
Leuven, Belgium
and
The MIT Press
Cambridge, Massachusetts
London, England

Contents

Foreword vii
Preface ix

1 Center and Periphery 1
Geography: Why Not and Why 4
The Case of the U.S. Manufacturing Belt 11
A Model of Geographic Concentration 14
The Process of Change 26
Where We Stand 33

2 Localization 35
Sources of Industry Localization 36
Some Empirical Evidence 54

3 Regions and Nations 69
What Is a Nation? 70
Localization and Trade 72
Center and Periphery, Again 83
Geography and the European Periphery 92
Concluding Thoughts 98

Appendix A: The Core-Periphery Model 101

Appendix B: History versus Expectations 115

Appendix C: Labor Market Pooling 123

Appendix D: Locational Gini Coefficients 129

References 133
Index 137