Post-Holocaust France and the Jews, 1945–1955

Edited by Seán Hand and Steven T. Katz

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY PRESS
New York and London

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction 1
Seán Hand

1. The Revival of French Jewry in Post-Holocaust France: Challenges and Opportunities 26
David Weinberg

2. The Encounter between "Native" and "Immigrant" Jews in Post-Holocaust France: Negotiating Difference 38
Maud Mandel

3. Centralizing the Political Jewish Voice in Post-Holocaust France: Discretion and Development 58
Samuel Ghiles-Meilhac

4. Post-Holocaust Book Restitutions: How One State Agency Helped Revive Republican Franco-Judaism 71
Lisa Moses Leff

5. Lost Children and Lost Childhoods: Memory in Post-Holocaust France 85
Daniella Doron

6. Orphans of the Shoah and Jewish Identity in Post-Holocaust France: From the Individual to the Collective 118
Susan Rubin Suleiman

7. Jewish Children's Homes in Post-Holocaust France: Personal Témoignages 139
Lucille Cairns

8. Post-Holocaust French Writing: Reflecting on Evil in 1947 156
Bruno Chaouat

9. Léon Poliakov, the Origins of Holocaust Studies, and Theories of Anti-Semitism: Rereading Bréviaire de la haine 169
Jonathan Judaken

10. André Neher: A Post-Shoah Prophetic Vocation 193
Edward K. Kaplan

11. René Cassin and the Alliance Israélite Universelle: A Republican in Post-Holocaust France 203
Jay Winter

About the Contributors 227

Index 231