Staging History 1780–1840

Edited by

Michael Burden, Wendy Heller, Jonathan Hicks and Ellen Lockhart

Bodleian Library
UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD

Contents

Foreword 6
Acknowledgements 7

Introduction
Michael Burden 9

Part One Among Facts and Fictions

1. Staging Shakespeare's History Plays: The Past as Tone and Material, 1779–1830
Ellen Lockhart 24

2. Red-Hot Shot and Real Water! Staging the Siege of Gibraltar
David Stuart 40

3. Forget about Walter Scott: The Vision of the Bard in 1832
Jonathan Hicks 58

Part Two Politics, Nation, Identity

4. Hofer, The Tell of the Tyrol: Patriotism and the Chartists in Early Victorian Britain
David Kennerley 80

5. Completing a Nation-building Story: Bristow and Wainwright's Rip Van Winkle
Victoria Aschheim 100

6. American Historical Melodrama: The Pioneer Patriot, or The Maid of the War Path
James Steichen 122

Part Three Exploration, Exoticism, Empire

7. A Killing in Paradise: The Grand Pantomime Ballet of the Death of Captain Cook
Michael Burden 138

8. 'A Tale Founded Upon the Facts': The Exile in Britain and America
Wendy Heller 158

9. Empire, Revolution and Patriotism in Columbus: Or, A World Discovered
Susan Valladares 178

Notes 196
Further Reading 210
Contributors 214
Picture Credits 216
Index 218