

DAVID WHITWELL

BAND MUSIC OF THE
FRENCH REVOLUTION

VERLEGT BEI HANS SCHNEIDER · TUTZING

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword	7
--------------------	---

PART I

The Participation of Bands during the French Revolution

I.	Origins of the Revolution and the Band Tradition	13
	The Music Corps of the National Guard	16
	The Festival of the Federation	17
II.	Ceremonies during the National Assembly	25
	(September 1790 – September 1791)
	The Ceremony for Mirabeau	26
	The Politicalization of Music	27
	The Ceremony for Voltaire	30
	The Federation, 1791	34
III.	Band Music during the Final Days of the Monarchy	37
	(October 1791 – August 1792)
	The Free School of Music	39
	Music for the Festival of Liberty	43
	Music for the Festival of Law	45
	The Federation, 1792	46
IV.	Band Music under the Girondins	49
	(August 1792 – August 1793)
	The Funeral of Le Peletier	50
	The Funeral of Lazowski	53
	The Federation, 1793	54
	The Funeral of Marat	55
	The Festival of Reunion	55

V.	The Development of the Musical Institutions	59
	The National Institute of Music	59
	The Concert of November 20, 1793	61
	Musique à l'usage des fêtes nationales	64
	The Arrest of Sarrette	65
VI.	Band Music during the Terror	67
	(August 1793 – August 1794)
	Music for the Festival of the Worship of Reason	68
	Celebration of the Victory of Toulon	70
	Anniversary of the Death of Louis XVI	70
	Music for the Festival of the Supreme Being	72
	Music for the Celebration of Victories	77
	Music for the Fifth Anniversary of the Bastille	78
	The Celebration of August Tenth	80
VII.	Music after the Terror	83
	(September 1794 – December 1795)
	Music for the Festival of the Fifth Sans-culottide	83
	Music in Honor of J. J. Rousseau	85
	Music for the Concert of November 7, 1794	86
	Anniversary of the Death of Louis XVI	87
	Music for the Funeral Ceremony in Honor of Feraud	87
	Music for the Festival of Liberty	88
	Music for the Celebration of August Tenth	89
	Music in Honor of the Girondins	89
	Establishment of the Conservatory	89
VIII.	Music at the End of the Revolution	93
	(December 1795 – January 1800)
	Music for the décade Festivals	93
	Music for National Festivals	96
	The Ceremony of Campo-Formio	96
	Music for Military Funerals	98
	Music for the Festival of Liberty and the Arts	99
PART II
	A Catalog of the Band Music of the French Revolution	101