

The Dynamic Landscape

Design, Ecology and Management of Naturalistic Urban Planting

Edited by Nigel Dunnett and James Hitchmough

Taylor & Francis

Taylor & Francis Group

LONDON AND NEW YORK

Contents

Illustration Credits	iv
1 Introduction to naturalistic planting in urban landscapes James Hitchmough and Nigel Dunnett	1	7 Exploring woodland design: designing with complexity and dynamics – woodland types, their dynamic architecture and establishment Roland Gustavsson	184
2 The changing nature of ecology: a history of ecological planting (1800–1980) Jan Woudstra	23	8 Wetlands and water bodies Wolfram Kircher	215
3 Contemporary overview of naturalistic planting design Noel Kingsbury	58	9 Communicating naturalistic plantings: plans and specifications Nigel Dunnett, Wolfram Kircher and Noel Kingsbury	244
4 The dynamic nature of plant communities – pattern and process in designed plant communities Nigel Dunnett	97	10 Creative management Hein Koningen	256
5 A methodology for ecological landscape and planting design – site planning and spatial design Darrel Morrison	115	11 The social and cultural context of ecological plantings Anna Jorgensen	293
6 Naturalistic herbaceous vegetation for urban landscapes James Hitchmough	130	Index	326