Developing Open Access Journals: A practical guide

David Solomon

Chandos Publishing
Oxford · England

Contents

List of tables ix

About the author xi

List of acronyms xiii

Part I – Background information 1

1 Introduction 3

Structure of the book 5

A brief history of scholarly journals 6

The functions of journals in scholarly communities 11

Ethical and practical arguments for open access to scholarship 15

Models for open access publication 18

2 Examples of successful open access journals 23

Medical Education Online 23

Information Research 27

Journal of Medical Internet Research 31

First Monday 35

Journal of Electronic Publishing 38

Summary 42

Note 45

Part II – Crafting a new open access journal 47

3 Journal planning issues 49

Determining the name and scope of the journal 51

Determining an organizational and governance structure 53

	Forming an editorial board	54
	Defining a peer-review policy	56
	Journal structure and content	63
	Format, layout and style	66
	Developing instructions for authors	68
4	Hosting and data systems	71
	Hosting issues	72
	Changing web hosting companies	80
	Ensuring the availability and integrity of your journal	85
5	By-laws, policies and other journal documentation	91
	By-laws	92
	Policies	94
	Instructions for authors	105
	Conclusions	109
6	Resources and financing	111
	Reducing the need for resources by operating an OA journal efficiently	112
	Volunteer help	114
	Donated support	117
	Generating income through the journal's operations	119
	Administrative overhead	124
	Conclusions	125
7	Disseminating the content of your journal	127
	Obtaining an International Standard Serial Number	127
	Indexes	128
	Directories	130
	Metadata harvesters	132
	Search engines	134
	Professional networking	139

Gathering intelligence on who is accessing your journal 139

Part III – Maintaining and operating an open access journal 143

8 Launching the journal 145

The planning stage 145

Launch preparation 150

Launching the journal 154

Note 156

9 Maintaining and sustaining an OA journal 157

Managing the review process 157

Publishing other types of material 165

Manuscript preparation process 168

Publication process 175

Journal maintenance processes 177

Note 180

10 Concluding remarks 181

References 183

Index 189