

resonate

PRESENT VISUAL STORIES THAT TRANSFORM AUDIENCES

Nancy Duarte
author of slide:ology

John Wiley & Sons, Inc.

Contents

Foreword	Dan Post	xvi
Introduction		xviii
1	WHY RESONATE?	1
	Persuasion Is Powerful	2
	Resonance Causes Change	4
	Change Is Healthy	6
	Presentations Are Boring	8
	The Bland Leading the Bland	10
	People Are Interesting	12
	Facts Alone Fall Short	14
	Stories Convey Meaning	16
	You Are Not the Hero	18
	The Audience Is the Hero	20
	Resonance Rule #1	23
2	LESSONS FROM MYTHS AND MOVIES	25
	Incorporate Story	26
	Drama Is Everything	28
	Story Templates Create Structure	30
	The Hero's Journey Structure	32
	Crossing the Threshold	34
	The Contour of Communication	36
	The Beginning and Call to Adventure	38
	The Middle: Contrast	40
	Call to Action	42
	The End	44
	What Is a Sparkline?	46
	Case Study: Benjamin Zander	48
	Zander's Sparkline	50
	Resonance Rule #2	53
3	GET TO KNOW THE HERO	55
	How Do You Resonate with These Folks?	56
	Segment the Audience	58
	Case Study: Ronald Reagan	60
	Meet the Hero	64
	Meet the Mentor	66
	Create Common Ground	68
	Communicate from the Overlap	70
	Resonance Rule #3	73
4	DEFINE THE JOURNEY	75
	Preparing for the Audience's Journey	76
	The Big Idea	78
	Plan the Audience's Journey	80
	Tools for Mapping a Journey	82
	Acknowledge the Risk	84
	Address Resistance	86
	Make the Reward Worth It	88
	Case Study: General Electric	90
	Resonance Rule #4	95

5	CREATE MEANINGFUL CONTENT	97	7	DELIVER SOMETHING THEY'LL ALWAYS REMEMBER	147
	Everything and the Kitchen Sink	98		Create a S.T.A.R. Moment	148
	More Than Just Facts	100		Case Study: Michael Pollan	151
	Don't Be So Cerebral	103		Repeatable Sound Bites	152
	Contrast Creates Contour	104		Evocative Visuals	154
	Transform Ideas Into Meaning	107		Case Study: Pastor John Ortberg	156
	Recall Stories	108		Ortberg's Sparkline	158
	Turn Information Into Stories	110		Case Study: Rauch Foundation	160
	Case Study: Cisco Systems	112		Case Study: Steve Jobs	163
	Move from Data to Meaning	117		Jobs's Sparkline	164
	Murder Your Darlings	118		Resonance Rule #7	167
	From Ideas to Messages	120
	Resonance Rule #5	123	8	THERE'S ALWAYS ROOM TO IMPROVE	169
6	STRUCTURE REVEALS INSIGHTS	125		Amplify the Signal, Minimize the Noise	170
	Establish Structure	126		Give a Positive First Impression	172
	Make Sense	128		Hop Down from Your Tower	174
	Case Study: Richard Feynman	130		Value Brevity	176
	Feynman's Sparkline	132		Wean Yourself from the Slides	178
	Order Messages for Impact	134		Balance Emotion	180
	Create Emotional Contrast	136		Host a Screening with Honest Critics	182
	Contrast the Delivery	138		Case Study: Markus Covert, PhD	184
	Putting Your Story on the Silver Screen	140		Case Study: Leonard Bernstein	187
	Process Recap	142		Resonance Rule #8	191
	Resonance Rule #6	145

9 CHANGE YOUR WORLD	193
Changing the World Is Hard	194
Use Presentations to Help Change the World	196
Don't Use Presentations for Evil	199
Enron's Presentations During Implosion	200
Gain Competitive Advantage	202
Case Study: Martin Luther King Jr.	204
King's Sparkline	206
Case Study: Martha Graham	210
Be Transparent So People See Your Idea	214
You Can Transform Your World	216
INSPIRATION IS EVERYWHERE	221
Case Study: Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart	222
Sonata Sparkline	224
Case Study: Alfred Hitchcock	226
Case Study: E. E. Cummings	228
Resonance Rule #9	233
References	234
Picture Credits	237
Index	239
Special Thanks	248