

Principles of European Law

Study Group on a European Civil Code

Lease of Goods (PEL LG)

prepared by

Kare Lilleholt
Anders Victorin t
Andreas Fotschl
Berte-Elen R. Konow
Andreas Meidell
Amund Bj0ranger T0rum

with advice from the Advisory Council on Lease of Goods
approved by the Co-ordinating Group

Particular advice on the drafting of the Articles from Professor Eric Give, Edinburgh

seilier.
europaean.law
LI ,
publishers

*WP
BRUYLANT

KA Staempfl.
<UAA> Publishers Ltd. Berne

Short Table of Contents

Text of Articles	/
Principles of European Law on Lease of Goods
Introduction	99
Chapter I: Scope of application and general provisions
Article 1:101: Lease of goods	107
Article 1:102: Consumer leases	122
Chapter 2: Lease period
Article 2:101: Start of lease period	129
Article 2:102: End of lease period	134
Article 2:103: Tacit prolongation	146
Chapter 3: Obligations of the lessor
Article 3:101: Availability of the goods	155
Article 3:102: Conformity with the contract at the start of the lease period	166
Article 3:103: Fitness for purpose, qualities, packaging etc.	169
Article 3:104: Conformity of the goods during the lease period	174
Article 3:105: Incorrect installation in a consumer lease	183
Article 3:106: Limits on derogation in a consumer lease	184
Article 3:107: Obligations on return of the goods	185
Chapter 4: Remedies of the lessee
Article 4:101: Overview of remedies	187
Article 4:102: Consumer leases	200
Article 4:103: Lessee's right to have lack of conformity remedied	204

Short Table of Contents

Article 4:104: Rent reduction	20s
Article 4:105: Substitute transaction	2/2
Article 4:106: Notification of lack of conformity	213
Article 4:107: Remedies channelled towards supplier of the goods	2/8
Chapter 5: Obligations of the lessee
Article 5:101: Obligation to pay rent	225
Article 5:102: Time for payment	227
Article 5:103: Acceptance of goods	229
Article 5:104: Handling the goods in accordance with the contract	23i
Article 5:105: Intervention to avoid danger or damage to the goods	235
Article 5:106: Compensation for maintenance and improvements	237
Article 5:107. Obligation to inform- ;	74\
Article 5:108: Repairs and inspections of the lessor	244
Article 5:109: Obligation to return the goods	247
Chapter 6: Remedies of the lessor
Article 6:101: Overview of remedies	251
Article 6:102: Consumer leases	260
Article 6:103: Right to enforce performance of monetary obligations	262
Article 6:104: Substitute transaction	266
Article 6:105: Reduction of liability in consumer leases	266
Chapter 7: New parties and sublease
Article 7:101: Change in ownership and substitution of lessor	27/
Article 7:102: Assignment of lessee's right to performance	278
Article 7:103: Sublease	280
Annexes	285

Table of Contents

Foreword	W
Our Sponsors	XI
Preface to this volume	XIII
Text of Articles
English
Lease of goods
Catalan
Arrendament de bens mobles
Dutch
Huur van goederen	19
Estonian
Vallasajade uurimine	28
French
Location de meuble	36
German
Miete beweglicher Sachen	45
Creek
Mio8u)or  KIVHTOU	54
Italian
Locazione di cose mobili.	63
Norwegian
Leige av laus0yretning	72
Polish
Najem rzeczy ,	80
Spanish
Arrendamiento de bienes muebles

Principles of European Law on
Lease of Goods

Introduction

<

A.	Contract principles and specific contracts
1.	Specific contracts	99
2.	Atypical contracts, mixed contracts, border cases etc.	99
3.	Contract types and regulation	99
4.	Contractual relationship, third parties, public law etc..	100
5.	Agreement, intention, effects, re-characterisation	100
6.	Scope of this Part of Book IV	101
B.	Lease contracts in national law
7.	Roman law background	101
8.	Lease contracts in the civil codes	101
9.	Overview of lease law in the civil law countries	101
10.	U.K. and Irish law	103
I I.	The Nordic countries	103
12.	EC legislation	104
C.	Survey of this Part of Book IV
13.	Scope of application	104
14.	Structure	104
15.	Internal references	105

Chapter I:

Scope of application and general provisions

Article 1:101: Lease of goods

Comments

- A. General
  - 1. Scope of application
- B. Contract
  - 2. Contractual relationship and relationship to third parties
- C. Right of use
  - 3. Benefits and physical control
  - 4. Fruits
  - 5. Consumable goods, fungible goods, aggregates
  - 6. Intellectual property rights

D.	Temporary right
7.	The right of use is not permanent	109
E.	Goods
8.	Meaning of "goods"	109
9.	Movables	109
10.	Corporeal movables	109
11.	Ships, aircraft etc.	109
F.	In exchange for money or other value
12.	Gratuitous contracts excepted	110
13.	Money or other value	/10
G.	Leases and sales
14.	Sales rules have priority	110
15.	Lessee's option to buy	///
16.	Sale and lease back	///
H.	Contracts where goods are supplied for the particular lease ("financial leasing" etc.)
17.	The contracts	///
18.	The Unidroit Convention	///
19.	Essential rules of the Unidroit Convention	112
20.	The Unidroit Convention and this Part of Book IV	.112
I.	Lease contracts and service contracts
21.	Right of use combined with services	112
22.	Applicability of this Part of Book IV	/13
I	The parties
23.	Lessor need not be the owner	113
24.	Lease-and-lease-back etc.	113
	Notes
I.	Contract	113
II.	Right of use	114
III.	Temporary right	115
IV.	Goods	115
V.	In exchange for money or other value	116
VI.	Leases and sales	117
VII.	Leases with a financing purpose	118
VIII.	Leases and services	121
IX.	The parties	121

Table of Contents

Article 1:102: Consumer leases

Comments

A.	Consumer rules and structure of the draft
1.	Consumers and lease contracts	122
2.	General principles and consumer contracts	122
3.	Consumer protection in this Part of Book IV	122
4.	Mandatory rules	123
B.	Definition of consumer lease
5.	Consumer contract definition for the purpose of this Part of Book IV	123
6.	Consumer	123
7.	The lessor	123

Notes

| I

I.	EU legislation	124
II.	Definition of consumer contract	124
III.	National law	124
IV.	Financial leases in particular	127

Chapter 2:

Lease period

Article 2:101: Start of lease period

Comments

A.	Lease period and contract
1.	Performance during a period of time	129
2.	Model of regulation	129
B.	Non-mandatory character
3.	The rules are non-mandatory	130
C.	Start of lease period
4.	Significance	130
D.	Time determinable from the contract
5.	Time determinable from terms agreed by the parties	130
6.	Start within a time frame	130
E.	Time not determinable from the contract
7.	Start within a reasonable time	(3/

F.	The lessee takes control of the goods
8.	The lease period starts when the lessee takes control of the goods	131
9.	Lessee's obligations affected by early acceptance of the goods	132
10.	Effects on length of lease period	(32)
G.	Consumer leases
I I.	No need for consumer rules	132
Notes
I.	Start of lease period	133
Article 2:102: End of lease period
Comments
A.	Definite or indefinite lease period
1.	Two main types	134
2.	Combinations	134
B.	Non-exhaustive regulation
3.	Rules on ordinary termination	135
A.	No protection against ordinary termination	135
5.	Non-mandatory character	135
C.	Definite lease period
6.	Time determined from the contract	135
7.	A definite lease period ends without notice	136
8.	Definite lease period cannot be terminated unilaterally beforehand	/36
9.	Notice of termination if end of lease period is an uncertain event	(36)
10.	No maximum period	136
D.	Indefinite lease period
11.	Definition	/37
12.	Right to terminate the lease period by giving notice	(37)
13.	Notice	137
14.	Period of notice of agreed or reasonable length	138
E.	Consumer leases
15.	Unreasonably long lease period	138
I 6.	Extraordinary right to terminate lease period?	138
17.	Automatic prolongation etc.	139
18.	Consumer credit and right to terminate lease	139

Table of Contents

Notes

I.	Lease for a definite or indefinite period	140
II.	Terminating the lease contract within the agreed period	140
III.	Various stipulations of a definite period	141
IV.	Maximum period	143
V.	Right and need to give notice	144
VI.	Period of notice	145
VII.	Right to extraordinary termination	145

Article 2:1.03: Tacit prolongation

Comments

A.	Prolongation of the lease period
1.	Explicit and tacit prolongation'	146.
B.	Tacit prolongation
2.	Overview	147
3.	Non-mandatory character	147
4.	No exception for consumer, leases	147
C.	Prerequisites of tacit prolongation
5.	Continued use	147
6.	Lease period has expired	147
7.	Length of continued use	148
8.	Lessor's knowledge	148
9.	Circumstances not inconsistent with consent	148
10.	Notice preventing prolongation	149
D.	Effects of tacit prolongation
11.	Prolongation for an indefinite period	149
12.	Prolongation takes effect from expiry	149
13.	The contract is prolonged accordingly	149
14.	Exception where the cost of the goods is already amortised	149
15.	No increase or extension of security rights	150

Notes

I.	Overview	150
II.	The notion of tacit renewal	151
III.	Tacit prolongation only where the lease is for a definite period?	152
IV.	Continued use	152
V.	Lessor's knowledge of continued use	153
VI.	Objection to prolongation	153
VII.	New lease period for a definite or indefinite period	154
VIII.	Other terms of the contract	154

Chapter 3:

Obligations of the lessor

Article 3:101: Availability of the goods

Comments

A.	General
1.	Characteristic obligations	155
B.	Time of performance
2.	Start of the lease period	(55
C.	Place of performance
3.	Reference made to general rules	156
4.	Place of performance in lease contracts	(56
5.	Goods acquired from a supplier selected by the lessee	156
D.	Availability of the goods
6.	Availability at the start of the lease period	156
7.	Acceptance by employees etc.	157
8.	Availability during the lease period	157
E.	"Risk"
9.	Availability and conformity	157
10.	No passing of risk	158
F.	Non-availability due to need for repairs by lessor etc.
I I.	No exception for repairs etc.	158
G.	Third parties' rights or claims
12.	Rights or claims that interfere with the lessee's use	159
	Rights or claims that are likely to interfere with the lessee's use	159
H.	Contract and default rules
14.	Non-mandatory rules.	159
15.	Consumer leases	160

Notes

I.	Overview of the lessor's obligations	160
II.	Obligation to make the goods available (transfer of physical control)	161
III.	Time of performance	162
IV.	Place of performance	162
V.	Availability during the lease period	162

Article 3:102: Conformity with the contract at the start of the lease period

Comments

A.	Conformity at the start of and throughout the lease period
1.	Conformity	166
2.	Distinguishing conformity at the start of the lease period and during the lease period	166
B.	Conformity at the start of the lease period
3.	Individual agreement and default rules	167
4.	Elements of agreed condition of the goods	167
5.	No provision concerning specifications etc.	168
6.	Relevant point in time for establishing conformity	168
7.	Agreements on quality etc. compared with exemption clauses	168

Notes

Article 3:103: Fitness for purpose, qualities, packaging etc.

Comments

A.	Default rules on conformity
1.	General	169
2.	Fit for particular purposes	169
3.	Fit for ordinary purposes	170
4.	Sample or model	170
5.	Packaging etc.	170
6.	Accessories and instructions	171
7.	What the lessee may reasonably expect	171

Notes

I.	Overview	171
II.	Provisions explicitly dealing with objective standards	172
III.	Standard set by agreed use	173
IV.	Mixed approach	174

Article 3:104: Conformity of the goods during the lease period

Comments

A.	General
1.	Models	174
2.	Conformity and availability	175
3.	Repairs, maintenance, wear and tear, duty of care	175

E. Lessor's obligation
4. Obligation to keep the goods in the original condition	176
5. Fit for purposes - the dynamic aspect	176
6. Wear and tear	176
7. Lessor's obligation negatively defined	176
C. Lessee's obligation
8. General	177
9. Leases with full amortisation of the cost	177
10. Measures ordinarily to be expected	178
11. Preserving normal standard and functioning	178
12. Test of reasonableness	178
13. Co-operation with lessor	178
Notes
I. Overview	179
11. Lessor alone has obligations of maintenance and repair	179
111. Maintenance obligations also on lessee	181
IV. Leases with a financing purpose	182

Article 3:105: Incorrect installation in a consumer lease

Comments

A. Installation and lack of conformity
1. Overview	183
2. Installation by the lessor	183
3. Installation by the lessee	183
4. The installation must form part of the contract	184

Notes

I. General	184
------------	-----

Article 3:106: Limits on derogation in a consumer lease

Comments

A. General
I. Mandatory rules in consumer leases	184

Notes

I. General	185
------------	-----

Article 3:107: Obligations on return of the goods

Comments

A.	Separate obligation to take goods in return
1.	Lessor's obligation	185
2.	Right not to accept the goods?	185
B.	Remedies
3.	Remedies for non-performance	186
4.	Protection of the goods etc.	186

Notes

I.	General	186
----	---------	-----

Chapter 4:

Remedies of the lessee

Article 4:101: Overview of remedies

Comments

A.	Overview
1.	Relationship to the general rules in Book III	187
2.	Lessee's remedies only	187
3.	Listing of remedies	187
B.	Right to enforce performance
4.	Enforce specific performance	187
5.	Exceptions	188
C.	Right to withhold performance
6.	General rules	188
7.	Purposes of withholding performance	189
8.	Withholding performance distinguished from set-off	189
9.	Withholding of performance and rent reduction	189
10.	Withholding rent	189
D.	Right to terminate the contract for fundamental non-performance
I I.	Fundamental non-performance	189
12.	Termination of a part or rent reduction?	190
E.	Right to rent reduction
13.	Rent reduction or rent not incurred?	190
14.	Proportionate reduction	(9/

F.	Right to damages and interest
15.	General rules apply	191
16.	Lease period and liability	191
G.	Preconditions of remedies
17.	Cure of non-performance	191
18.	Notification of remedies, knowledge of non-performance etc.	191

Notes
I.	Non-performance and remedies in general	192
II.	Enforce specific performance	192
III.	Withholding performance of the reciprocal obligation	195
IV.	Termination of the contract	196
V.	Rent reduction	198
VI.	Claiming damages and interest	198

Article 4:102: Consumer leases

Comments

A.	Mandatory rules on remedies
1.	Agreements excluding or restricting remedies	200
2.	Settlement agreements	201
3.	Relevant remedies	201
4.	Limitation of liability for certain losses	202
5.	Non-professional lessor	202
B.	Non-mandatory rules on performance
6.	Quality, quantity and price	203
7.	Descriptive terms restricting remedies	203

i s

Notes
I.	General	204

Article 4:103: Lessee's right to have lack of conformity remedied

Comments

A.	Right to have lack of conformity remedied
1.	Need for rules on lessee's own remedying of lack of conformity	204
2.	Work that mayjje performed	- 205
3.	Unreasonable costs	205
4.	Lessee's duty of care	• 205
5.	. Lessor's right to cure unaffected	205

Notes

I.	Lessee's own remedying of non-conformity - general rules	•	205
II.	Right to enforcement of specific performance as limit		207
III.	Lessor's right to cure not affected		207
IV.	No right to remedy non-conformity		207

Article 4:104: Rent reduction

Comments

- A. Rent reduction
  - 1. Clarification of the general rule
  - 2. Derogation from general rules
  - 3. Late notification

i'

Notes

- I. Non-performance and rent reduction
- II. Implementation of rent reduction
- III. No explicit right to rent reduction

Article 4:105: Substitute transaction

Comments

- A. Calculation of loss
  - 1. Price and value
  - 2. Substitute transaction other' than a lease

Notes

- I. Calculation of loss after substitute transaction

Article 4:106: Notification of lack of conformity

Comments

- A. Notification within a reasonable time
  - 1. Purpose
  - 2. Reasonable time
  - 3. Informing of lack of conformity
- B. Effect of late notification
  - 4. Cut-off effect
  - 5. No absolute time limit

C. Notification of remedy
6. Specific performance and termination for non-performance	214
7. Other remedies	215
D. Exception to cut-off effect
8. Knowledge and non-disclosure	215
Notes
I. Overview	215
II. Notification and cut-off effect in lease contracts	216
Article 4:107: Remedies channelled towards supplier of the goods
Comments
A. Overview
1. "Financial leasing" and remedies	218
B. Scope of application
2. Prerequisites	218
3. Goods supplied for the particular lease	219
4. Specification of goods	219
5. Selection of supplier	219
6. Specification of goods and selection of supplier	219
7. Other elements of the transaction	219
8. Approval of the terms of the supply contract	220
9. Supplier's obligations owed to lessee	220
10. Rules of law	220
11. Contract with lessee	220
12. Stipulation in favour of the lessee as a third party	220
13. Supplier's obligations cannot be varied without lessee's consent	220
C. Effects
14. Channelling liability past the lessor	221
15. Overview	221
16. Purpose of the rules	221
17. Specific performance	221
18. Reduction of rent	221
19. Damages and interest	222
20. Termination of the contract	222
21. Withholding of rent, rejection of goods	222
22. Hidden lack of conformity	222
23. Non-performance resulting from lessor's act or omission	222
24. Third parties' rights	222
25. Lessee's termination of the supply contract	223

Table of Contents

Notes

I.	Scope of application	223
II.	Excluding remedies against lessor for delay or lack of conformity	223
III.	Liability for third parties' rights	224
IV.	Lessee's right to terminate the supply contract	224

Chapter 5:

Obligations of the lessee

Article 5:101: Obligation to pay rent

Comments

A.	Reference to the contract and default rules
1.	The contract	225
2.	Default rule	225
B.	Rent from the start of the lease period
3.	Accrual and payment	225
4.	Accrual from the start of the lease period	226

Notes

I.	Obligation to pay rent
II.	Determined or determinable rent as requirement
III.	Fixing a rent that is "usual", "reasonable" etc.
III.	Accrual of rent
IV.	Rent in the form of money or other value

Article 5:102: Time for payment

Comments

A.	Time for payment
1.	End of period for which rent is agreed
2.	End of reasonable intervals
B.	Place of payment
3.	Lessor's place of business

Notes

I.	Time for payment
II.	Payment in advance
III.	Place of payment

Article 5:103: Acceptance of goods

Comments

A.	Separate obligation to accept the goods
1.	Obligation to co-operate and to take control of the goods	230
B.	Remedies
2.	Protection of the goods etc.	230

Notes
I.	Obligation to co-operate and to take control of the goods	230

Article 5:104: Handling the goods in accordance with the contract

Comments

A.	Overview
1.	Obligation to handle the goods in accordance with the contract	231
B.	Restrictions and requirements following from the contract
2.	Express terms, purpose of use etc.	232
3.	Handle the goods with care	232
4.	Maintenance etc.	232
5.	Leases with full amortisation of the cost	232
6.	"Risk" and lessee's obligation to return the goods	232
7.	Agreements on "risk"	233

Notes-
I.	Requirements and restrictions following from the contract	233
II.	Obligation of care	234
III.	Liability for damage or deterioration	235
IV.	Obligation of maintenance etc.	235

Article 5:105: Intervention to avoid danger or damage to the goods

Comments

A.	Measures ordinarily to be taken by the lessor
1.	Purpose of the rule	235
2.	Limitation of lessee's obligation	236
3.	Indemnification and reimbursement	236
4.	Lessee's right to have a lack of conformity remedied	236

Table of Contents

Notes

I. Obligation to intervene	236
----------------------------	-----

Article 5:106: Compensation for maintenance and improvements

Comments

A. Improvements etc. to the goods by lessee
1. Introduction	237
2. Performance of lessee's obligation of maintenance etc.	237
3. Improvements made with lessor's consent	238
4. Improvements made without lessor's consent	238
5. Lessee has remedied lack of conformity	238
6. Lessee's intervention	238
7. Property law rules	238

Notes

I. Interplay of different sets of rules	-239
II. Lease law referring to rules on benevolent intervention	239
III. Lessor's consent to improvements as a central requirement	239
IV. Other solutions	24/

Article 5:107: Obligation to inform

Comments

A. Obligation to inform
1. General	241
2. Third party claims and rights	242
3. Information within reasonable time	242
4. Non-conformity not relevant	242

Notes

I. Duty to inform	242
II. Time for information	243
III. Positive knowledge, negligence	243

Article 5:108; Repairs and inspections of the lessor

Comments

A. Necessary repairs etc.
I. The lessee must tolerate repairs	244

B.	Other work
2.	Obligation not to obstruct other work without good reason	244
C.	Inspections
3.	Inspections by lessor and by prospective lessees	245
Notes
I.	Necessary repairs etc.	245
II.	Other work	245
III.	Inspections by lessor or by prospective lessees	246

Article 5:109: Obligation to return the goods

Comments

A.	Obligation to return the goods
1.	The obligation	247
2.	Time for return of the goods	247
B.	Place for return of goods
3.	Place where the goods were made available	247

Notes
I.	Obligation to return the goods	248
II.	Place of return	248
III.	Condition of the goods	249
IV.	Lessor's right to reject the goods	249

Chapter 6:

Remedies of the lessor

Article 6:101: Overview of remedies

Comments

A.	General
1.	Scope of this Chapter	25/
2.	Reference to general rules	25/
3.	Listing of remedies	25/
B.	Right to enforce performance
4.	Enforced specific performance of non-monetary obligations	25/
5.	Enforced specific performance of monetary obligations	252

Table of Contents

C. Withholding performance
6. Goods are not made available	252
7. Goods have been made available	252
D. Termination
8. Fundamental non-performance	252
9. Effects of termination	252
E. Damages and interest
10. Damages if non-performance is not excused	253
11. Measure of damages	253
12. Benefits to lessor	253
13. Option to buy the goods	253
14. Interest	254
F. Non-mandatory rules
15. Non-mandatory rules except for consumer leases	254
Notes
I. Non-performance and remedies in general	254
II. Enforcement of performance	255
III. Withholding of performance	256
IV. Termination for non-performance	256
V. Damages	257
 Article 6:102: Consumer leases
Comments
A. Mandatory rules on remedies
1. Agreements on remedies	260
2. Standardised damages, fees etc.	260
3. Other remedies	260
Notes
I. Consumer legislation and contractual remedies	261
 Article 6:103: Right to enforce performance of monetary obligations
Comments
A. General
I. Relationship with 111.-3:301	262

B.	Goods have not yet been made available
2.	Enforced performance	263
3.	Substitute transaction	263
4.	Performance would be unreasonable	263
C	Lessee has accepted the goods
5.	Enforced performance	263
6.	Reasonable to take the goods back	263
D.	Effects
7.	Damages covering lessor's loss	264
Notes
I.	General	264

Article 6:104: Substitute transaction

Comments

A.	Calculation of loss
I.	Price and value	266

Notes

I.	Reference to IVF-4:105	266
----	------------------------	-----

Article 6:105: Reduction of liability in consumer leases

Comments

A.	Insurance and leases
1.	No obligation to take out insurance covering contractual liability	267
2.	No obligation to insure the goods	267
B.	Consumer leases
3.	Lessee's reasonable expectations	267
4.	Existing insurance or expected insurance	268
5.	Coverage of insurance	268
C.	Lease contracts other than consumer leases
6.	General rules apply	268

Notes i

I.	Insurance and lease contracts	269
----	-------------------------------	-----

Table of Contents

Chapter 7:

New parties and sublease

Article 7:101: Change in ownership and substitution of lessor

Comments

A.	Overview
1.	Lease contracts and change in ownership	271
2.	Contractual claims and protection of possession	271
B.	Models and policy issues
3.	Lessor's right to dispose of the goods	272
4.	Enforceability against new owner	272
5.	New owner in good faith	272
6.	Protection against the lessor's general creditors	273
C.	The lessee has possession of the goods
7.	New owner as lessor	273
8.	Former owner's liability	274
9.	Reversal of the passing of ownership	274
D.	The lessee does not have possession of the goods
10.	Possible claims against the new owner	275
E.	Registration of rights
I I.	Priority of rules on registration	275
F.	Lessor is not owner
12.	The rules apply accordingly	275
	Notes
I.	Protection of lessee's right	276
II.	Ex lege transfer of the lease contract	276
III.	Protection of lessee's possession only	277
IV.	No protection against new owner	278

Article 7:102: Assignment of lessee's right to performance

Comments

A.	Lessee's right not assignable
I.	Exception from the general principle	278

Notes
I. Right to assignment without consent	279
II. Assignment requires lessor's consent	279
Article 7:103: Sublease
Comments
A. Right of use and the lessee's person
1. General	280
B. Sublease
2. Sublease only with consent	28/
3. Withholding of consent and extraordinary right of termination	287
C. Sublease, assignment of rights and transfer of the contract
4. Sublease distinguished from assignment and transfer	282
5. Lessor remains liable in case of sublease ,	282
Notes
I. Right to sublease without lessor's consent ,	282
II. Consent required for sublease	282
III. Right to extraordinary termination if consent is withheld	283
IV. Lessee remains liable	283
V. Direct action	283
Annexes
Abbreviations	287
Tables of Codes and Statutes	323
Table, of Cases	345
Table of Conventions and EU Enactments	351
Table of Draft Common Frame of Reference and
Principles of European Contract Law	353
Table of Literature	357
Index	363