

Marketing in the International Aerospace Industry

WESLEY E. SPREEN

ASHGATE

Contents

| | |
|--|-----|
| List of Figures | vii |
| List of Tables | x |
| Introduction | 1. |
| PART 1: THE AEROSPACE MARKET AND ITS BASIC ELEMENTS | |
| 1 The Aerospace Market: Supply, Demand, and Segmentation | 7 |
| 2 The Product | 23 |
| 3 Pricing in the Aerospace Industry | 43 |
| PART 2: MARKETING TOOLS, TECHNIQUES, AND RESOURCES | |
| 4 Overseas Agents and Sales Consultants | 63 |
| 5 Financing and Leasing | 75 |
| 6 Industrial Offsets | 97 |
| 7 Government Relations | 117 |
| 8 Brand Management and Advertising | 129 |
| 9 Air Shows | 139 |
| 10 Operations Analysis | 157 |
| 11 International Cooperation, Joint Ventures, and Teaming | 171 |
| 12 Working with the Customer | 181 |
| PART 3: MANAGING THE MARKETING AND SALES PROCESS | |
| 13 Managing the Marketing and Sales Process | 201 |

| | | |
|----|------------------------------------|-----|
| 14 | Protecting Sales Victories | 223 |
| 15 | The Commercial Contracting Process | 241 |

PART 4: THE GOVERNMENTAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE FRAMEWORK

| | | |
|----|--|-----|
| 16 | The Broader Administrative and Regulatory Context of Aerospace Marketing | 267 |
| 17 | What Lies Ahead in the Aerospace Marketplace? | 281 |
| | Index | 293 |