

Adult Education as Vocation

A Critical Role for the Adult Educator

Michael Collins

London and New York

Contents

Editor's note	ix
Preface	xi
1 The current crisis in adult education: obsession with technique and shortfalls in practice	1
2 On contemporary practice and research: self-directed learning to critical theory	21
3 Adult education as vocation: the role of the adult educator	40
4 Addressing needs, programme design, and evaluation	58
5 The critical turn: reviewing professionalization, training and the problem of competence	80
6 Adult life-world concerns and protection of the commons	93
7 Critical adult education: outlines of a transformative pedagogy	101
Conclusion	118
Notes	121
Bibliography	133
Index	141