

TEACHING IN AMERICA

The Slow Revolution

Gerald Grant and Christine E. Murray

Harvard University Press

Cambridge, Massachusetts

London, England

1999

Contents

1. Two Professions	1
2. Assessing America's Teachers and Schools	10
3. The Essential Acts of Teaching	31
4. Three Questions Every Teacher Must Answer	57
5. The Modern Origins of the Profession: Florence's Story, 1890-1920	76
6. Reforming Teaching in the Midst of Social Crisis: Andrena's Story, 1960-1990	103
7. Teachers' Struggle to Take Charge of Their Practice: The Rochester Story, 1987-1997	141
8. The Progress of the Slow Revolution throughout the Nation	182
9. Teaching in 2020	213
Research Methods	239
Notes	243
Acknowledgments	269
Index	271

Contents

1. Two Professions	1
2. Assessing America's Teachers and Schools	10
3. The Essential Acts of Teaching	31
4. Three Questions Every Teacher Must Answer	57
5. The Modern Origins of the Profession: Florence's Story, 1890-1920	76
6. Reforming Teaching in the Midst of Social Crisis: Andrena's Story, 1960-1990	103
7. Teachers' Struggle to Take Charge of Their Practice: The Rochester Story, 1987-1997	141
8. The Progress of the Slow Revolution throughout the Nation	182
9. Teaching in 2020	213
Research Methods	239
Notes	243
Acknowledgments	269
Index	271