

Enlightened Pleasures

Eighteenth-Century France and the New Epicureanism

Thomas M. Kavanagh

Contents

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Introduction: A New Epicureanism  | I   |
| 1. The Pleasures of Failure:Jourdan's Le Guerrier philosophe   | 10  |
| 2. Mirroring Pleasure:La Morlière's Angola                     | 31  |
| 3. Life-Writing as Epicurean Allegory:Thérèse philosophe       | 52  |
| 4. The Esthetics of Pleasure:Du Bos and Boucher                       | 71  |
| 5. Rousseau's Eudemony of Liberty   | 103 |
| 6. Laclos' Anthropology of Pleasure                                       | 128 |
| 7. Recasting the Epicurean Novel:Mirabeau's La Morale des sens | 149 |
| 8. Theaters of Pleasure   | 171 |
| Conclusion: From Pleasure to Happiness                                    | 207 |
| Notes   | 219 |
| Illustration Credits  | 243 |
| Index   | 245 |