

The Theatrical Event

Dynamics of Performance and Perception

Willmar Sauter

UNIVERSITY OF IOWA PRESS

❧ Iowa City

Contents

Acknowledgments, ix

New Beginnings, 1

PART I Theatrical Event: Foundations

- 1 Approaching the Theatrical Event:
The Influence of Semiotics and Hermeneutics
on European Theatre Studies, 19
- 2 Theatre or Performance or Untitled Event?
Some Comments on the Conceptualization of the Object of Our Studies, 36
- 3 Reacting to Actions:
Concepts of Theatricality, 50
- 4 Theatrical Events Revisited:
Playing Culture and the Historiography of Early Nordic Theatre, 73
- 5 Culture as Human Encounter:
Theatrical Communication as Model of Cultural Events, 95

PART II Theatrical Event: Applications

- 6 Sarah Bernhardt in Phenomenological Perspective:
To Study a Living Legend, 117
- 7 Mistero Buffo, 1999:
Dario Fo's Intercultural Transfer to Sweden, 146
- 8 Reflections on Miss Julie, 1992:
Sensualism and Memory, 158
- 9 Museum-Stage:
The Frames Move into the Exhibition Hall, 165
- 10 Theatre Talks:
How to Find Out What the Spectator Thinks, 174

- 11 Fiction, Mainly Fiction:
    Some Surveys on the Theatrical Experience
    of Young Audiences, 187
- 12 Strindberg's Words versus the Actor's Actions:
    The Success of the Actresses at the Intimate Theatre in Stockholm (1907–1910), 199
- 13 How Long Is a Jewish Nose on Stage?
    Ethnicity and Nationality in the 1930s, 207
- 14 Text, Performance, Event, 1611:
    A Historical Play by a Catholic Protestant, 224
- 15 Beyond the Director's Images:
    Reviews and Views of Robert Lepage's Production of
    A Dream Play at the Royal Dramatic Theatre, 239
- To Be Continued, 249
- Notes, 257
- Bibliography, 263
- Index, 269