

Robert N. Bellah

BEYOND BELIEF

Essays on Religion
in a Post-Traditional World

University of California Press
Berkeley • Los Angeles • Oxford

Contents

Acknowledgments, vii

Preface, ix

Introduction, xi

PART ONE

THEORETICAL FOUNDATIONS

- | | | |
|---|---------------------------|----|
| 1 | The Sociology of Religion | 3 |
| 2 | Religious Evolution | 20 |

PART TWO

RELIGION IN THE MODERNIZATION PROCESS

GENERAL

- | | | |
|---|--|----|
| 3 | Reflections on the Protestant Ethic
Analogy in Asia | 53 |
| 4 | Meaning and Modernization | 64 |

CHINA

- | | | |
|---|--|----|
| 5 | Father and Son in Christianity and
Confucianism | 76 |
|---|--|----|

JAPAN

- | | | |
|---|---|-----|
| 6 | The Religious Situation in the Far East | 100 |
| 7 | Values and Social Change in Modern
Japan | 114 |

ISLAM

- | | | |
|---|--|-----|
| 8 | Islamic Tradition and the Problems of
Modernization | 146 |
|---|--|-----|

UNITED STATES

9 Civil Religion in America 168

PART THREE

RELIGION IN MODERN SOCIETY

10 Review of Bishop Robinson's *Honest
to God* 193

11 Transcendence in Contemporary Piety 196

12 The Dynamics of Worship 209

13 Religion and Belief 216

14 Review of Norman O. Brown's
Love's Body 230

15 Between Religion and Social Science 237

Appendix: The Systematic Study of Religion 260

Bibliography of Robert N. Bellah 289

Index 301