
POST- APARTHEID EDUCATION

*Towards Non-Racial,
Unitary and Democratic Socialization In the New South Africa*

Mandla P. Mncwabe

UNIVERSITY PRESS OF AMERICA

Lanham • New York • London

LIST OF TABLES

TABLE 2.1 :	PROJECTION OF NUMBERS OF MATRICULATED SCHOOL LEAVERS IN SOUTH AFRICA BY RACIAL GROUPS (IN THOUSANDS)	43
TABLE 3.1 :	QUALIFICATIONS OF TEACHERS IN AFRICAN SCHOOLS (EXCLUDING TBVC): 1988	63
TABLE 3.2 :	TEACHING DEGREES AND DIPLOMAS AWARDED AT AFRICAN UNIVERSITIES: 1986, 1987 AND 1988	66
TABLE 3.3 :	STUDENT TEACHERS AT AFRICAN UNIVERSITIES	67
TABLE 3.4 :	NUMBER OF STUDENTS QUALIFYING AT UNIVERSITIES: 1987	69
TABLE 3.5 :	NUMBER OF STUDENTS QUALIFYING AT UNIVERSITIES: 1988	70
TABLE 3.6 :	PUPILS ENROLMENT PROJECTIONS: 2000	83
TABLE 3.7 :	NUMBERS OF TEACHERS TO BE TRAINED BY 2020	83

ILLUSTRATIONS

THE CONVOLUTED STRUCTURE OF EDUCATION IN SOUTH AFRICA

xvii

SOUTHERN AFRICA: EDUCATIONAL REGIONS

xviii

TABLE OF CONTENTS

DEDICATION	iii
A QUOTATION	v
LIST OF TABLES	vii
INTRODUCTION	xix

CHAPTER ONE

EDUCATION FOR BLACK PEOPLE IN SOUTH AFRICA: THE GOVERNMENT'S UNFINISHED BUSINESS

1.1	Introduction	1
1.2	Brief historical review	3
1.3	Report of the education commission of the South African Institute of race relations - 1979	9
1.3.1	Principles	9
1.3.2	Proposals for a new South African education system	10
1.3.2.1	Desegregation	10
1.3.2.2	Control and management	11
1.3.2.3	Allocation of resources	11

1.3.2.4	Specific educational levels	11
1.3.2.4.1	Schools	11
1.3.2.4.2	Universities	13
1.3.2.4.3	Intermediate qualifications	13
1.3.2.4.4	Adult education	13
1.4	The De Lange committee report on education - 1981	14
1.4.1	Premises	15
1.4.2	Evaluation of the present educational dispensation	18
1.4.3	Problems connected with the concept of "equal quality in education"	18
1.4.4	Proposed policy guidelines	19
1.4.5	Implications	19
1.4.6	Recommendations on priorities	19
1.4.6.1	Education management: Interim council for education	21
1.4.6.2	Educational structure	21
1.4.6.3	Supporting services	21
1.4.6.4	Recruitment and training of teachers	22
1.4.6.5	Physical facilities	22
1.4.6.6	Financing of education	23
1.4.6.7	Planning for the provision of education	23
1.5	The lost decade	23
1.6	Conclusion	26

CHAPTER TWO

THE CONVOLUTED STRUCTURE OF EDUCATION IN SOUTH AFRICA

2.1	Introduction	31
2.2	The bureaucratic monster of nineteen education departments	33
2.3	Shortages	37
2.4	Black educational needs	42
2.5	Current educational structures	46
2.6	Current overall education policy	47
2.7	Conclusion	54

CHAPTER THREE

HIGH BLACK TEACHER-PUPIL RATIO AND WHITE TEACHER RETRENCHMENTS

3.1	Introduction	61
3.2	Black teacher numbers and qualifications	61
3.3	Teacher training	65
3.4	18 000 White teachers face retrenchment	72
3.5	Thorny side of "equal education for all"	74
3.6	Rationalization of colleges of education	77
3.7	Conclusion	82

CHAPTER FOUR

MANDELA MEETS DE KLERK ON BLACK EDUCATION CRISIS

4.1	Introduction	85
4.2	ANC plans for education well received	86
4.3	Government ready to negotiate new school system	87

4.4	It is going to take more than just money to bridge the gulf	88
4.5	Education system must first gain credibility	91
4.6	Breakthrough in education crisis	92
4.7	School crisis group set up	94
4.8	Joint working group gets mixed response	96
4.9	A golden opportunity missed	99
4.10	Schools of scandal F.W. de Klerk must fix	100
4.11	Conclusion	102

CHAPTER FIVE

GOVERNMENT SCHOOL ANNOUNCEMENT AND COMMUNITY RESPONSES

5.1	Introduction	105
5.2	Communities respond to new school move	108
5.2.1	N.E.C.C. wary of new move	109
5.2.2	Educationists deeply suspicious of open schools plan (Sunday Tribune, March 25)	110
5.2.3	Almost two million white parents voted (Sunday Tribune, September 16)	112
5.2.4	What they voted for (Sunday Tribune, September 16)	114
5.2.5	Parents' veto on none-racial schools unacceptable (Weekly Mail, September 14-20)	115
5.2.6	Move impractical, dictatorial and racist (Daily News, September 11)	116
5.2.7	New models of schools rejected across spectrum (Weekly Mail, September 14-20)	118
5.2.8	Models for open white schools fall far short of what is necessary (Sunday Times, September 16)	120
5.2.9	Left wingers reject government school plan as a farce (Daily News, September 19)	123
5.3	The implications of non-racial education	124
5.4	Conclusion	126

CHAPTER SIX

THE DOORS OF WHITE SCHOOLS CREAK OPEN

6.1	Introduction	129
6.2	Transvaal school caught off-guard	129
6.3	Conservative Party fights school integration	131
6.4	No room in "schols of dispair"	132
6.5	Most black pupils still face crisis	135
6.6	Too few pupils, 22 government schools shut	136
6.7	ANC plan to flood white schools	137
6.8	White elephant schools face invation	138
6.9	Plan to seize what schools criticised	140
6.10	Conclusions	142

CHAPTER SEVEN

EDUCATION AND RESPECT FOR DIVERSITY OF CULTURES

7.1	Introduction	143
7.2	South Africa's plurality problem	145
7.3	Post-apartheid aims of education	151
7.4	Respect for diversity	154
7.5	Conclusion	158

CHAPTER EIGHT

THE EDUCATION RENEWAL STRATEGY - A FURTHER PLOY TO KEEP WHITE SCHOOLS WHITE

8.1	Introduction	161
8.2	A boat with too many holes	165
8.3	Where do the children figure?	168
8.4	Education renewal strategy does not pass the test	173

8.5	Plot to keep schools white	176
8.6	Government arithmetic on teachers is puzzling	178
8.8	Conclusion	179

CHAPTER NINE

THE NATIONAL, NON-RACIAL AND DEMOCRATIC EDUCATION SYSTEM - THE ONLY SOLUTION

9.1	Introduction	181
9.2	Education and culture	182
9.3	Why De Klerk could not risk reforming education in 1991.	190
9.4	Open schools: a drop in an ocean of democracy	191
9.5	Future prospects and problems	195
9.6	Why a unitary education system	205
9.7	All constituencies must be consulted	210
9.8	Action to be taken during the period of transition	211
9.9	What the third world can teach us	214
9.10	Prospects of change in South African society	219
9.11	The integrated polyethnic society - a pluralist compromise	224
9.12	Conclusion	228

LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS	229
------------------------------	------------

BIBLIOGRAPHY	231
---------------------	------------

INDEX	247
--------------	------------