

Making a Difference

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read 'Libertina I. Amathila', positioned below the title.

Libertina I. Amathila

Contents

Acknowledgements	xi
Maps	xiii
Prologue	xvii
Childhood Innocence	1
My Village, Fransfontein	3
Church	5
The Fountain	6
Self-sufficiency	7
Grandmother	9
Grandfather	10
Mothers and Fathers	11
Story-telling	12
Schooling	15
Augustineum School	16
Wellington High School	18
The Start of My Journey	20
Preparing to Leave	21
Crossing Borders	23
Dar es Salaam	27
A Dream Come True	30
Lodz	31
Cold War Pawns	33
The Polish Language	34

Medical Studies in Warsaw	36
Hard Work and a Lot of Fun	38
Life Outside Studies	41
Graduation	43
An Intern in Tanzania	45
Malnutrition	47
Internal Medicine	48
Surgery	49
Gynaecology	50
Paediatrics	52
Marriage	54
Further Studies in the UK and Sweden	56
Acclimatizing to Another New Country	57
My Second Internship	59
Life and Work in Sweden	60
News from Home	62
Responding to the Refugee Crisis	64
The Old Farm	64
New Challenges	65
Nyango Health and Education Centre	68
The Hospital	68
Measles Outbreak	71
Fearless and Grounded	72
Training at the Eastern Front	76
Family Planning Services	77
Camp Life	80
United Nations Institute for Namibia	81
The Threat of Attack	82
Rebellion	83
Political Responsibilities and International Solidarity	85
SWAPO Women's Council	85
Africa's Intellectual Giants	85

World Health Organisation	87
Scholarships	89
My Second WHO Scholarship	91
Kassinga	92
Reading the USA	92
Support from Finland and the USA	95
Ndalatando, Angola	98
Life in the Mavulu Centre	101
Morobia	103
'Embushua'	104
Visitors	105
A New Camp Commander	105
Kwanza Sul	108
Morenga Village	108
Spy Fever	111
Homecoming	114
The 1989 Elections	118
Election Campaign	118
The Results	120
A Minister in Waiting	124
Fact-Finding Mission	125
Return from my Visits	129
Independence Day 21 March 1990	130
Squatters and Street Children	131
Squatters	131
Street Children	134
After-School Centre	136
Urban Renewal	137
Katutura Facelift	137
Communal Towns	138

The Horseshoe Market	139
Rundu Open Market	141
Saujemwa	141
A Clean Capital	142
Reforming the Legislation	144
Women's Property Rights	145
Local Government Act	146
Training Councillors	149
Providing Better Housing	150
Alienation Scheme	150
Houses in Communal Towns	152
Hanova Houses	153
Build-Together Programme	154
A Trust Betrayed: the Single Quarters	156
Regional Representation	160
Regional Councils Act	160
The Two Houses of Parliament	161
Traditional Councils Act 1992	162
Peace and Conflict in the Caprivi	164
Decentralization Policy	167
Minister of Health and Social Services	169
Kunene Region	170
HIV/AIDS	171
Launching of the ARV Programme	175
Cardiac Unit	176
Failed Attempt at Democracy	181
Another Transfer	183
Deputy Prime Minister	185
Public/Civil Service and Administration	185
The German Special Initiative	188

Marginalized San Communities	192
Fact-Finding Mission	193
Identity Documents	196
No Coffins	196
Donations and Dependency	197
Schooling	197
Land	198
Recommendations	199
Education Solutions	200
The San Development Programme	202
Uitkoms Farm	202
Land for the Hailom	208
Identity Documents	211
Campfire Stories	212
Making Coffins	213
Bee-keeping	215
Education	216
Inclusion of San in Education and the Workplace	217
San Traditional Leaders	219
Mountain Folk in the Kunene Region	221
Otjomuru Village	225
Otjikojo Village	228
Ohaihuua Village	232
Otjijandjasemo Village	240
Lessons Learnt	243
Providing Education	243
Health Services	244
Tradition and Modernity	245
My Team	247
Empowerment	248
Looking Back and Looking Forward	251
Serving the People	251
Deciding to Retire	252

Women in Politics	254
Women in Namibia	256
Retirement.....	258
Medals and Awards	259
Life as a Farmer	262
Appendix I	267
Tributes to Dr Amathila on her Retirement.....	267
Appendix II	275
Autobiographical Profile of Libertina Inaaviposa Amathila ...	275