
Sociology and School Knowledge

CURRICULUM THEORY, RESEARCH AND POLITICS

GEOFF WHITTY

METHUEN · LONDON

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction	1
PART ONE FROM THEORY AND RESEARCH TO POLICY AND PRACTICE
1 Sociological approaches to the school curriculum	7
2 The curriculum as ideological practice	30
3 Curriculum studies and the sociology of school knowledge	56
4 From academic critique to radical intervention	76
PART TWO CURRENT CURRICULUM CONFLICTS IN A SOCIOLOGICAL PERSPECTIVE
5 The Great Debate and its aftermath	101
6 The politics of public examinations	120
7 Continuity and change in social and political education	147
8 Sociologists and political movements – a resumé of the current issues	167
Notes	181
References	186
Name index	199
Subject index	203