

MANAGING THE SECONDARY SCHOOL

Joan Dean

To the head teachers of Surrey secondary schools who have helped me to learn about headship

CROOM HELM
London & Sydney

NICHOLS PUBLISHING COMPANY
New York

CONTENTS

PREFACE

Part 1 Leadership and management in education

- Chapter 1 Leadership and management 1
What is effective leadership?; management style; the tasks and skills of management
- 2 Aims, objectives and policies 21
articulating aims; reviewing aims in relation to the work of the school; forming objectives; making policies

Part 2 The management of learning

- Chapter 3 Curriculum 33 Curriculum philosophy; building a curriculum; continuity; curriculum development; coherence in curriculum
- 4 Organising learning 50
The learning process; grouping for learning; the use of time; the use of space and equipment; staff deployment; staffing structure; the timetable; the timetabling programme

Part 3 The management of the school as a community

- 5 The management of change 69
What is involved in change? decision making; the process of planning;
pre-conditions for change; problem solving; the problems of change
- 6 Pastoral care and discipline 89
The pastoral philosophy; the pastoral structure; pastoral systems; coordinating pastoral work; the discipline system; the content of the pastoral programme; links with parents and outside agencies; 5 record keeping
- 7 School administration 99
The administrative work of the school; the school office; the use of micro-technology in administration; finance and budgeting; the school environment

Part 4 Managing people

- | | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 8 | Managing people Motivation; power and influence; leadership behaviour; delegation; staff problems, personal, profes- sional, relationship; relevant legislation | 108 |
| 9 | Inter-personal skills Common features of inter-personal skills; presenting material to a group; talking to an individual; interviewing for information; prob- lem solving interviews; receiving a complaint; criticising someone's work; refusing requests; negotia- tion; leading a group; leadership roles in different groups | 125 |
| 10 | Communication Oral and written communication; provision of information for teachers, ancillary staff, top management, pupils; communication systems; effective communication; things which go wrong; evaluating communication | 142 |
| 11 | Staff selection and staff development Job and person description; writing further particulars; long and short listing; the programme for selec- ting staff; the school policy for staff development; how development takes place; the staff development programme; what teachers need to learn; how teachers learn; the school plan for induction; proba- tioners; classroom skills; appraisal; staff records | 162 |
| 12 | School and community Relationships with parents, gover- nors, the community; the LEA, continuity; representing the school to the community; the community as a resource. | 183 |

Part 5 Conclusion

| | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 13 | Evaluation Purposes of evaluation; indicators of performance; what needs to be evaluated; processes of evaluation; policies for evaluation; designing the system; the role of the head | 196 |
| 14 | Personal organisation Self knowledge; the use of time; stress; the role of the head | 208 |

Appendices

| | | |
|---|---|-----|
| A | The aims of education | 220 |
| B | A system for allocating capitation allowances | 222 |
| C | Legislation affecting schools | 223 |

| | | |
|--------------|--|------------|
| INDEX | | 226 |
|--------------|--|------------|