

SECOND COMPACT EDITION

LITERATURE

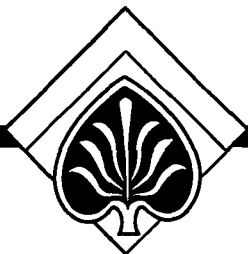

*An Introduction
to Reading and Writing*

Edgar V. Roberts
Lehman College
The City University of New York

Henry E. Jacobs

Prentice
Hall

Upper Saddle River, New Jersey 07458

Contents

THEMATIC TABLE OF CONTENTS

xxxvii

PREFACE TO THE SECOND COMPACT EDITION

xlvi

1 INTRODUCTION: READING, RESPONDING TO, AND WRITING ABOUT LITERATURE

1

What Is Literature, and Why Do We Study It? 1 • Types of Literature: The Genres, 2 • Reading Literature and Responding to It Actively, 3

GUY DE MAUPASSANT The Necklace, 5

To go to a ball, Mathilde Loisel borrows a necklace from a rich friend, but her rhapsodic evening has unforeseen consequences that alter her life.

Reading and Responding in a Notebook or Computer File, 12 • Writing Essays on Literary Topics, 15 • Three Major Stages in Thinking and Writing: Discovering Ideas, Making Initial Drafts, and Completing the Essay, 16 • The Discovery of Ideas ("Brainstorming"), 16 • Assembling Materials and Beginning to Write, 22 • Drafting the Essay, 25 • Writing a First Draft, 28 • Developing an Outline, 30 • Demonstrative Student Essay, First Draft: How Setting in "The Necklace" Is Related to the Character of Mathilde, 31 • Developing and Strengthening Essays through Revision, 32 • Checking Development and Organization, 36 • Using Exact, Comprehensive, and Forceful Language, 38 • Demonstrative Student Essay, Improved Draft: How Maupassant Uses Setting in "The Necklace" to Show the Character of Mathilde, 41 • Essay Commentaries, 43 • Special Topics for Writing and Argument about the Writing Process, 43 • Responding to Literature: Likes and Dislikes, 44 • Stating Reasons for Favorable Responses, 46 • Stating Reasons for Unfavorable Responses, 46 • Writing about Responses: Likes and Dislikes, 49 • Demonstrative Student Essay: Some Reasons for Liking Maupassant's "The Necklace," 50 • Special Topics for Writing and Argument about Responses to Literature, 52

READING AND WRITING ABOUT FICTION

2 FICTION: AN OVERVIEW

57

Modern Fiction, 58 • The Short Story, 59 • Elements of Fiction I: Verisimilitude and Donnée, 59 • Elements of Fiction II: Character, Plot, Structure, and Idea or Theme, 61 • Elements of Fiction III: The Writer's Tools, 64

STORIES FOR STUDY, 69

RAYMOND CARVER Neighbors, 69

Bill and Arlene Miller are looking after the apartment of the Stones, their neighbors, whose life seems to be brighter and fuller than theirs.

TIM O'BRIEN The Things They Carried, 74

In Vietnam, American soldiers carry not only their weighty equipment, but many memories.

ALICE WALKER Everyday Use, 85

Mrs. Johnson, with her daughter Maggie, is visited by her civilized daughter Dee, whose return home is accompanied by surprises.

The Précis or Abridgment, 92 • Guidelines for Précis Writing, 92 • Writing a Précis, 95 • Demonstrative Student Essay: A Précis of Alice Walker's "Everyday Use," 95 • Special Topics for Writing and Argument about Fiction, 97

3 PLOT AND STRUCTURE: THE DEVELOPMENT AND ORGANIZATION OF STORIES

98

Plot, the Motivation and Causation of Fiction, 98 • The Structure of Fiction, 100 • Formal Categories of Structure, 100 • Formal and Actual Structure, 102

STORIES FOR STUDY, 104

THOMAS HARDY The Three Strangers, 104

The rustic and isolated country-shepherds of Higher Crowstairs celebrate a christening, but the evening provides more action than they expected.

JAMAICA KINCAID What I Have Been Doing Lately, 119

Life develops from the recirculation of dreams and fantasies.

TOM WHITECLOUD Blue Winds Dancing, 121

Yearning to spend Christmas at home, a young Indian student travels from his university in California to his native village in Wisconsin.

Writing about the Plot of a Story, 126 • Demonstrative Student Essay: Conflicting Values in Thomas Hardy's "The Three Strangers," 127 • Writing about Structure in a Story, 129 • Demonstrative Student Essay: Conflict and Suspense in Thomas Hardy's "The Three Strangers," 131 • Special Topics for Writing and Argument about Plot and Structure, 133

4 CHARACTERS: THE PEOPLE IN FICTION 135

Character Traits, 136 • How Authors Disclose Character in Literature, 137 • Types of Characters: Round and Flat, 139 • Reality and Probability: Verisimilitude, 141

STORIES FOR STUDY, 142

WILLIAM FAULKNER Barn Burning, 142

A young country boy grows in awareness, conscience, and individuality despite his hostile father.

SUSAN GLASPELL A Jury of Her Peers, 154

On a small family farm, two women accompanying their husbands on a criminal investigation discover interesting details in the farmhouse kitchen. Their growing realizations force them to make an unexpected decision.

JOYCE CAROL OATES Shopping, 169

Mrs. Dietrich and her daughter Nola go shopping on Saturday morning, but does their time together bring hoped-for intimacy?

AMY TAN Two Kinds, 178

Jing-Mei follows her own wishes and leads her own kind of life despite her mother's hopes and guidance.

Writing about Character, 186 • Demonstrative Student Essay: The Character of Minnie Wright in Susan Glaspell's "A Jury of Her Peers," 188 • Special Topics for Writing and Argument about Character, 191

5 POINT OF VIEW: THE POSITION OR STANCE OF THE NARRATOR OR SPEAKER 192

An Exercise in Point of View: Reporting an Accident, 194 • Conditions That Affect Point of View, 195 • Determining a Work's Point of View, 196 • Mingling Points of View, 200 • Summary: Guidelines for Point of View, 201

STORIES FOR STUDY, 202

AMBROSE BIERCE An Occurrence at Owl Creek Bridge, 202

A condemned man dreams of escape, freedom, and family.

ELLEN GILCHRIST The Song of Songs, 209

In despair and uncertainty, Barrett Clare receives a phone call from her real mother, whose “song” is one of need.

SHIRLEY JACKSON The Lottery, 213

What would it be like if the prize at a community-sponsored lottery were not the cash that people ordinarily expect from lottery drawings?

DORIS LESSING The Old Chief Mshlanga, 219

A woman recalls rural conditions of racial inequality and oppression in colonial Rhodesia.

LORRIE MOORE How to Become a Writer, 227

There is more to becoming a writer than simply sitting down at a table and beginning to write.

Writing about Point of View, 232 • Demonstrative Student Essay: Shirley Jackson’s Dramatic Point of View in “The Lottery,” 234 • Special Topics for Writing and Argument about Point of View, 237

6

SETTING: THE BACKGROUND OF PLACE, OBJECTS, AND CULTURE IN STORIES

238

What Is Setting? 238 • The Literary Uses of Setting, 239

STORIES FOR STUDY, 244WALTER VAN TILBURG CLARK The Portable Phonograph, 244

In civilized times, listening to music brings people together, but what happens in a future time when civilization has been destroyed?

JOSEPH CONRAD The Secret Sharer, 249

What punishment does a man deserve if he committed his crime while attempting to save many people?

CYNTHIA OZICK The Shawl, 275

In a Nazi concentration camp, can a mother save her starving and crying baby?

EDGAR ALLAN POE The Masque of the Red Death, 278

In a time of plague, Prince Prospero surrounds himself with friends, locks his doors, and throws great parties, but an uninvited guest suddenly appears.

Writing about Setting, 283 • Demonstrative Student Essay: The Setting of Conrad’s “The Secret Sharer,” 285 • Special Topics for Writing and Argument about Setting, 287

7 TONE AND STYLE: THE WORDS THAT CONVEY ATTITUDES IN FICTION

288

Diction: The Writer's Choice and Control of Words, 289 • Tone, Irony, and Style, 293 • Tone, Humor, and Style, 294

STORIES FOR STUDY, 295

KATE CHOPIN The Story of an Hour, 295

Louise Mallard is shocked by news of her husband's death, but there is still a greater shock in store for her.

ERNEST HEMINGWAY Soldier's Home, 297

Harold Krebs, a veteran of World War I combat, returns home and finds that adjusting to peacetime life is unsettling.

ALICE MUNRO The Found Boat, 303

After the snows of winter have melted, young people begin learning about themselves as they start putting aside their childish ways.

FRANK O'CONNOR First Confession, 310

Jackie as a young man recalls his mixed memories of the events surrounding his first childhood experience with confession.

MARK TWAIN Luck, 316

The career of a famous general and knight is described by a follower who was there at all the battles.

Writing about Tone and Style, 319 • Demonstrative Student Essay: Frank O'Connor's Control of Tone and Style in "First Confession," 321 • Special Topics for Writing and Argument about Tone and Style, 324

8 SYMBOLISM AND ALLEGORY: KEYS TO EXTENDED MEANING

326

Symbolism, 326 • Allegory, 329 • Fable, Parable, and Myth, 331 • Allusion in Symbolism and Allegory, 332

STORIES FOR STUDY, 332

AESOP The Fox and the Grapes, 332

What do people say about things they can't have?

ANONYMOUS The Myth of Atalanta, 333

In ancient times, how did a superior woman maintain her power and her integrity?

ANITA SCOTT COLEMAN Unfinished Masterpieces, 335

Worthiness does not rise when suppressed by poverty and racial inequality.

- NATHANIEL HAWTHORNE Young Goodman Brown, 337
 In colonial Salem, Goodman Brown has a bewildering encounter that changes his outlook on life and his attitude toward people.
- MARGARET LAURENCE The Loons, 347
 The dark side of progress and change is that much potential beauty and ability are shunted aside and lost.
- ST. LUKE The Parable of the Prodigal Son, 353
 Is there any limit to what a person can do to make divine forgiveness impossible?
- AMÉRICO PAREDES The Hammon and the Beans, 355
 Are the principles of American liberty and equality to be confined to people of only one group, or should they be safeguards for everyone?
- JOHN STEINBECK The Chrysanthemums, 359
 On a small California ranch, Elisa Allen's hopes are raised, along with her sense of self-worth.
- MICHEL TREMBLAY The Thimble, 367
 Can people capably shoulder the responsibilities that life delivers to them?
- Writing about Symbolism or Allegory*, 369 • Demonstrative Student Essay: Allegory and Symbolism in Nathaniel Hawthorne's "Young Goodman Brown," 372 • Special Topics for Writing and Argument about Symbolism and Allegory, 374

9 IDEA OR THEME: THE MEANING AND THE MESSAGE IN FICTION 376

- Ideas and Assertions*, 376 • Ideas and Values, 377 • The Place of Ideas in Literature, 379 • How to Find Ideas, 380

STORIES FOR STUDY, 382

- TONY CADE BAMBARA The Lesson, 383
 A group of children is taken to an expensive toy store, and some of them draw conclusions about society and themselves.
- JAMES JOYCE Araby, 388
 An introspective boy develops insights after keeping his promise to attend a street bazaar and trying to buy a gift.
- D. H. LAWRENCE The Horse Dealer's Daughter, 393
 A man and woman, whose lives have been indeterminate, find in each other a new reason for being.
- Writing about a Major Idea in Fiction*, 404 • Demonstrative Student Essay: D. H. Lawrence's Idea in "The Horse Dealer's Daughter" That Commitment Is Essential to Life, 406 • Special Topics for Writing and Argument about Ideas, 409

10 FIVE STORIES FOR ADDITIONAL STUDY AND ENJOYMENT

410

ROBERT OLEN BUTLER Snow, 410

From disrupted times and separate cultures, a man and woman reach out to each other.

ANDRE DUBUS The Curse, 416

A man who witnesses a gang attack on a defenseless woman experiences deep anguish and self-reproach.

E. M. FORSTER The Point of It, 420

Though life sometimes seems pointless and worthy only of being forgotten, the life well-lived has great value.

CHARLOTTE PERKINS GILMAN The Yellow Wallpaper, 430

Who is the woman who seems to be trying to emerge from behind the yellow wallpaper?

KATHERINE ANNE PORTER The Jilting of Granny Weatherall, 441

At the very last, Granny Weatherall has her memories and is surrounded by her loving adult children.

READING AND WRITING ABOUT POETRY

11 MEETING POETRY: AN OVERVIEW

451

The Nature of Poetry, 451

BILLY COLLINS Schoolsville, 451

What scenes of school are memorable and also droll?

LISEL MUELLER Hope, 453

What is hope, and where do we find it?

ROBERT HERRICK Here a Pretty Baby Lies, 454

Do nothing that might disturb this sleeping child.

Poetry of the English Language, 456 • How to Read a Poem, 456 •
Studying Poetry, 458

ANONYMOUS Sir Patrick Spens, 458

What happens when Sir Patrick and his men go out to sea?

POEMS FOR STUDY, 461

ROBERT BROWNING My Last Duchess, 461

The Duke shows his wife's portrait to the visiting envoy of the Count.

- EMILY DICKINSON Because I Could Not Stop for Death, 463
Is Death an invited or uninvited guest?
- ROBERT FRANCIS Catch, 464
Why is a poem like a baseball?
- ROBERT FROST Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening, 464
Why does the speaker tell about driving on after pausing to see the winter scene?
- THOMAS HARDY The Man He Killed, 465
The battlefield soldier thinks about his fallen enemy.
- JOY HARJO Eagle Poem, 466
How is prayer like the circular flight of the eagle?
- RANDALL JARRELL The Death of the Ball Turret Gunner, 467
What was the duty, even at birth, of the ball turret gunner?
- JIM NORTHRUP Ogichidag, 467
What has been the life's purpose of three generations of men?
- NAOMI SHIHAB NYE Where Children Live, 468
What permanent effects do children produce on a home?
- CHRISTINA ROSSETTI A Christmas Carol, 469
What present can a poor worshiper give the newly born Christ child?
- WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE *Sonnet 55: Not Marble, Nor the Gilded
Monuments,* 470
How can powerful rhyme outlive politics, war, and history?
- JUDITH VIORST True Love, 471
True love transcends the obstacles of daily life together.
- WILLIAM WORDSWORTH *It Is a Beauteous Evening,
Calm and Free,* 472
We live in the divine presence even "when we know it not."

Writing a Paraphrase of a Poem, 473 • Demonstrative Student Paraphrase: A Paraphrase of Thomas Hardy's "The Man He Killed," 474 • Writing an Explication of a Poem, 474 • Demonstrative Student Essay: An Explication of Thomas Hardy's "The Man He Killed," 476 • Special Topics for Writing and Argument about the Nature of Poetry, 478

12

WORDS: THE BUILDING BLOCKS OF POETRY

480

Choice of Diction: Specific and Concrete, General and Abstract, 481 • Levels of Diction, 481 • Special Types of Diction, 482 • Syntax, 485 • Denotation and Connotation, 486

- ROBERT GRAVES The Naked and the Nude, 487
Word choices have profound effects on our perceptions.

POEMS FOR STUDY, · 489

- WILLIAM BLAKE The Lamb, 489
Why is the lamb worthy of being blessed?
- ROBERT BURNS Green Grow the Rashers, O, 490
If one finds love, everything else is insignificant.
- LEWIS CARROLL Jabberwocky, 491
Who is the Jabberwock, and why should he be fought?
- E.E. CUMMINGS next to of course god america i, 492
Is this speaker saying anything significant, even if he has the platform?
- JOHN DONNE *Holy Sonnet 14: Batter My Heart,
Three-Personed God*, 493
Why is God's care superior to human reason?
- RICHARD EBERHART The Fury of Aerial Bombardment, 493
What eternal truth does humankind possess?
- THOMAS GRAY Sonnet on the Death of Richard West, 494
Why does the speaker believe he grieves in vain?
- A. E. HOUSMAN Loveliest of Trees, the Cherry Now 495
What should we do with the time we have on earth?
- DENISE LEVERTOV Of Being, 496
What makes the world a mystery?
- EDWIN ARLINGTON ROBINSON Richard Cory, 496
Can anyone ever understand the personal pain of others?
- THEODORE ROETHKE Dolor, 497
What are the major costs of our commercial society?
- STEPHEN SPENDER *I Think Continually of Those
Who Were Truly Great*, 498
Does true greatness mean what we usually think it does?
- WALLACE STEVENS Disillusionment of Ten O'Clock, 498
What is this disillusionment, and how can it be overcome?
- MARK STRAND Eating Poetry, 499
Can it be fun to eat poetry? Can poetry be digested? Understood?
- WILLIAM WORDSWORTH Daffodils, 500
How do daffodils bring both immediate and recollected pleasure?

Writing about Diction and Syntax in Poetry, 501 • Demonstrative Student Essay: Extraordinary Definitions in Stephen Spender's "I Think Continually of Those Who Were Truly Great," 502 • Special Topics for Writing and Argument about the Words of Poetry, 505

- MARGE PIERCY A Work of Artifice, 549
 How can culture and artifice stultify the lives of women?
- SYLVIA PLATH Metaphors, 550
 What are these metaphors, and what are they about?
- MURIEL RUKEYSER Looking at Each Other, 550
 More is described here than simply looking.
- WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE Sonnet 18: Shall I Compare Thee to a Summer's Day? 551
 Despite the passage of time, it is possible to retain life.
- WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE Sonnet 30: When to the Sessions of Sweet Silent Thought, 552
 When thoughts are about loss, what other thoughts can restore them?
- ELIZABETH TUDOR, QUEEN ELIZABETH I On Monsieur's Departure, 552
 How does this famous queen of England express her secret uneasiness?
- MONA VAN DUYN Earth Tremors Felt in Missouri, 553
 How can human discontents seem as great as actual earthquake tremors?
- WALT WHITMAN Facing West from California's Shores, 554
 Despite a life of wandering, there are still many deep secrets.
- WILLIAM WORDSWORTH London, 1802, 555
 What is necessary for restoring an aimless society to a sense of purpose?
- SIR THOMAS WYATT I Find No Peace, 555
 Why does the speaker say his loved one causes both delight and strife?
- Writing about Figures of Speech*, 556 • Demonstrative Student Paragraph: Wordsworth's Use of Overstatement in "London, 1802," 559 • Demonstrative Student Essay: A Study of Shakespeare's Metaphors in Sonnet 30, 560 • Special Topics for Writing and Argument about Figures of Speech in Poetry, 561

15

TONE: THE CREATION OF ATTITUDE IN POETRY

563

Tone, Choice, and Response, 564

- CORNELIUS WHUR The First-Rate Wife, 564
 The speaker obligingly describes how a woman may become a first-rate wife. What are we to make of this speaker?

Tone and the Need for Control, 565

- WILFRED OWEN Dulce et Decorum Est, 566
 Can ideals of war be sustained in the face of the reality of war?

Tone and Common Grounds of Assent, 567 • Tone and Irony, 568

THOMAS HARDY The Workbox, 569

This dialogue between a husband and wife reveals much about both.

Tone and Satire, 571

ALEXANDER POPE Epigram from the French, 571

The speaker presents a stinging but ironic insult.

ALEXANDER POPE Epigram, Engraved on the Collar of a Dog which I Gave to His Royal Highness, 572

Are social pretensions confined only to human beings?

POEMS FOR STUDY, 573

LUCILLE CLIFTON homage to my hips, 573

The speaker takes delight in the power of her body.

E.E. CUMMINGS she being Brand, 574

What do making love and driving a new car have in common?

MARI EVANS I Am A Black Woman, 575

What anguish has an American black woman experienced?

LANGSTON HUGHES Theme for English B, 576

How would you grade this poem if you were the English instructor?

SHARON OLDS The Planned Child, 577

How important was the speaker to her mother?

MICHAEL ONDAATJE Late Movies with Skyler, 578

How can watching late movies bring two people together?

ROBERT PINSKY Dying, 580

What do all living beings have in common?

ALEXANDER POPE From Epilogue to the Satires, Dialogue I, 581

What can be held sacred when morality is under attack?

ANNE RIDLER Nothing Is Lost, 582

In what ways are our ancestors still alive?

THEODORE ROETHKE My Papa's Waltz, 583

How does the speaker remember his father's behavior after taking on a load of whiskey?

JONATHAN SWIFT A Description of the Morning, 584

Is there anything heroic about life at the beginnings of the day?

DAVID WAGONER My Physics Teacher, 585

Classroom demonstrations in physics don't always work out as hoped for.

C. K. WILLIAMS Dimensions, 586

Would any world anywhere else be any better than the one we have?

Writing about Tone in Poetry, 587 • Demonstrative Student Essay: The Shifting Attitudes of Sharon Olds's Speaker in "The Planned Child," 589 • Special Topics for Writing and Argument about Tone in Poetry, 591

16 FORM: THE SHAPE OF THE POEM

593

CHARACTERISTICS OF CLOSED-FORM POETRY, 593 • Types of Closed Forms, 594

ALFRED, LORD TENNYSON The Eagle, 596

What words can describe this most majestic of all birds?

ANONYMOUS Spun in High, Dark Clouds, 599

What is the essential quality of falling snow?

The Uses of the Closed Form to Shape and Polish Meaning, 600

WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE Sonnet 116: Let Me Not to the Marriage of True Minds, 600

True love does not change, no matter what is often done against it.

Open-Form Poetry, 601

WALT WHITMAN Reconciliation, 602

What does it take to bring human beings to reconciliation with each other?

Visual and Concrete Poetry, 603

GEORGE HERBERT Easter Wings, 604

How can God's grace be described and also pictured at the same time?

POEMS FOR STUDY, 605

ELIZABETH BISHOP One Art, 606

What constitutes the greatest loss of all?

GWENDOLYN BROOKS We Real Cool, 607

Of what value is it to indulge in destructive delights?

BILLY COLLINS Sonnet, 607

How do you write a sonnet about a sonnet?

E.E. CUMMINGS Buffalo Bill's, 608

What one thing happens to everyone, no matter how great they are?

JOHN DRYDEN To the Memory of Mr. Oldham, 609

What can be said in a final goodbye?

ROBERT FROST Desert Places, 610

What is more frightening than the emptiness of outer space?

- NIKKI GIOVANNI Nikki-Rosa, 610
 "Black love is Black wealth."
- ROBERT HASS Museum, 611
 How does life go on despite many forces opposing it?
- GEORGE HERBERT Virtue, 612
 What one thing gives lasting life?
- WILLIAM HEYEN Mantle, 613
 What happens to youthful energy and glory?
- JOHN HOLLANDER Swan and Shadow, 614
 Have you ever seen a poem shaped like a swimming swan?
- GERARD MANLEY HOPKINS God's Grandeur, 615
 An expression of amazement and gratitude for the earth's beauty.
- JOHN KEATS Ode to a Nightingale, 615
 The nightingale's beautiful song provides an insight into eternal beauty.
- HENRY WADSWORTH LONGFELLOW The Sound of the Sea, 618
 The sea is impelled by mysterious forces, as we are.
- CLAUDE MCKAY In Bondage, 618
 "Life is greater than the thousand wars / Men wage for it."
- JOHN MILTON When I Consider How My Light Is Spent, 619
 Human beings serve God best when they follow God's ways.
- EDGAR ALLAN POE Annabel Lee, 620
 Ideal love, now lost, can still exist in memory.
- DUDLEY RANDALL Ballad of Birmingham 621
 A mother's hopes and plans for her child's safety are cruelly thwarted.
- THEODORE ROETHKE The Waking, 622
 What does it take to learn how to live?
- WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE Sonnet 73: That Time of Year Thou May'st in Me Behold, 623
 Despite encroaching age, living requires present commitment.
- PERCY BYSSHE SHELLEY Ode to the West Wind, 624
 Today's thoughts create the future, just as spring follows winter.
- PERCY BYSSHE SHELLEY Ozymandias, 626
 What has happened to the superpowers of past ages?
- MAY SWENSON Women, 627
 Women should be pedestals to men, shouldn't they?
- DYLAN THOMAS Do Not Go Gentle into That Good Night, 628
 What is, is, but we should not therefore be happy about accepting ill.

- JEAN TOOMER Reapers, 628
 What is hurt by progress?
- CHARLES H. WEBB The Shape of History, 629
 How can history be compared to the shape of a cone?
- PHYLIS WEBB Poetics Against the Angel of Death, 630
 Does the writing of poems preserve life despite inevitable death?
- WILLIAM CARLOS WILLIAMS The Dance, 631
 Brueghel's painting captures life in an active and joyous moment.
- WILLIAM WORDSWORTH The Solitary Reaper, 632
 An ordinary experience gives permanent thoughts of beauty.
- Writing about Form in Poetry*, 633. • Demonstrative Student Essay: Form and Meaning in George Herbert's "Virtue," 635 • Special Topics for Writing and Argument about Poetic Form, 637

17

SYMBOLISM AND ALLUSION; WINDOWS TO WIDE EXPANSES OF MEANING

639

- Symbolism and Meanings*, 639
- VIRGINIA SCOTT Snow, 641
 Tradition of place gives permanence to life.
- The Function of Symbolism in Poetry*, 643 • Allusions and Meaning, 645 • Studying for Symbols and Allusions, 646

POEMS FOR STUDY, 647

- MATTHEW ARNOLD Dover Beach, 648
 When you lose certainty, what remains for you?
- AMY CLAMPITT Beach Glass, 649
 Even the most beautiful objects come from sand and return to sand.
- WILLIAM COWPER The Poplar Field, 650
 Nothing stays the same; everything changes, and much is lost.
- E.E. CUMMINGS in Just-, 651
 In springtime, children dance, and play, and grow. Wheel!
- JOHN DONNE The Canonization, 652
 How does spiritual love parallel human love?
- ISABELLA GARDNER Collage of Echoes, 654
 What stays in the memory after a long life?
- JORIE GRAHAM The Geese, 655
 Should life be measured by wars and politics, or by everyday actions?

THOMAS HARDY In Time of "The Breaking of Nations," 656
 What continues even though kingdoms fade into nothingness?

GEORGE HERBERT The Collar, 656
 What does it mean to be dedicated to the service of God?

JOSEPHINE JACOBSEN Tears, 658
 Why are tears uniquely human, and what do they tell about us?

ROBINSON JEFFERS The Purse-Seine, 659
 The circle of the net is closing.

JOHN KEATS La Belle Dame Sans Merci, 661
 What happened when the knight met the lady in the meadows?

ANDREW MARVELL To His Coy Mistress, 662
 Why should we not live our lives to the utmost now?

MARY OLIVER Wild Geese, 664
 The world goes on, and love goes on.

WALT WHITMAN A Noiseless Patient Spider, 665
 In measureless space, the soul, somewhere, needs to find a place.

RICHARD WILBUR Year's End, 665
 We want more time, more time, but is there ever to be more time?

WILLIAM WORDSWORTH Lines Written in Early Spring, 667
 A beautiful spot in the woods leads the speaker to moral thoughts.

WILLIAM BUTLER YEATS The Second Coming, 668
 Harmful forces are being loosened in our modern world.

Writing about Symbolism and Allusion in Poetry, 669 •
Demonstrative Student Essay: Symbolism and Allusion in William Butler Yeats's "The Second Coming," 672 • Special Topics for Writing and Argument about Symbolism and Allusion in Poetry, 674

18

MYTHS: SYSTEMS OF SYMBOLIC ALLUSION IN POETRY

676

Mythology as an Explanation of How Things Are, 676 • Mythology and Literature, 680

WILLIAM BUTLER YEATS Leda and the Swan, 681
 We have the power to live, but do we have the knowledge?

Six Poems Related to the Myth of Odysseus, 683

POEMS FOR STUDY, 683

LOUISE GLÜCK Penelope's Song, 684
 Penelope is waiting for Odysseus' return, but is she pleased?

W. S. MERWIN Odysseus, 685
When people wander, do they really ever have a sense of home?

DOROTHY PARKER Penelope, 685
Why should not Penelope be called brave?

LINDA PASTAN The Suitor, 686
This is the story that usually no one bothers to tell.

ALFRED, LORD TENNYSON Ulysses, 687
What can we learn from all our journeys and experiences?

PETER ULISSE Odyssey: 20 Years Later, 689
What is it like to return home after a seemingly endless journey?

Six Poems Related to the Myth of Icarus, 689

POEMS FOR STUDY, 690

BRIAN ALDISS Flight 063, 690
The challenge is there for us, if only we are brave enough to accept it.

W. H. AUDEN Musée des Beaux Arts, 691
Even when someone suffers, life goes on.

EDWARD FIELD Icarus, 692
When you've been up, can you bear being down?

MURIEL RUKEYSER Waiting for Icarus, 693
If you stay home and wait, life is not without frustrations.

ANNE SEXTON To a Friend Whose Work Has Come to Triumph, 694
Rejoice when brave and planned efforts succeed.

WILLIAM CARLOS WILLIAMS Landscape with the Fall of Icarus, 694
In spring when there are many jobs to do, is there time to worry about someone else?

Three Poems Related to the Myth of the Phoenix, 695

POEMS FOR STUDY, 695

AMY CLAMPITT Berceuse, 696
When something new arises, are things necessarily better than before?

DENISE LEVERTOV Hunting the Phoenix, 696
Is growth automatic, or must it be sought?

MAY SARTON The Phoenix Again, 697
Even over seas of grief, the phoenix will take flight.

Two Poems Related to the Myth of Oedipus, 698

POEMS FOR STUDY, 698

MURIEL RUKEYSER Myth, 699

Why was not Oedipus' answer to the Sphinx inclusive?

JOHN UPDIKE On the Way to Delphi, 699

In the actual physical locations of ancient Thebes, where Oedipus was king, everything is changed, or is it?

Writing about Myths in Poetry, 700 • Demonstrative Student Essay: Myth and Meaning in Dorothy Parker's "Penelope," 702 • Special Topics for Writing and Argument about Myth in Poetry, 704

19

TWO POETIC CAREERS: EMILY DICKINSON AND ROBERT FROST

705

EMILY DICKINSON (1830-1886), 705

Life and Work, 705 • Poetic Characteristics, 708 • Poetic Subjects, 709 • Bibliographic Sources, 711 • Special Topics for Writing and Argument about the Poetry of Dickinson, 712

POEMS BY EMILY DICKINSON, 713

After Great Pain, a Formal Feeling Comes (J 341, F 372), 714
How can ceremony salve a wounded heart?

Because I Could Not Stop for Death (J 712, F 479), 463
Is Death an invited or uninvited guest?

The Bustle in a House (J 1078, F 1108), 714
What actions follow a death in the family?

The Heart Is the Capital of the Mind (J 1354, F 1381), 714
What controls the mind and also the world?

I Cannot Live with You (J 640, F 706), 714
Why would life together be impossible?

I Died for Beauty – but Was Scarce (J 449, F 448), 716
Beauty and Truth are insignificant in the face of death.

I Felt a Funeral in My Brain (J 280, F 340), 716
What is it like when knowledge ends?

I Heard a Fly Buzz – When I Died (J 465, F 491), 716
What continues after the loss of vision and life?

I Like to See It Lap the Miles (J 585, F 383), 717
The railroad train is like a huge but playful monster.

- I'm Nobody! Who Are You?* (J 288, F 260), 717
What is the difference between Nobody and Somebody?
- I Never Lost as Much But Twice* (J 49, F 39), 718
I have been comforted twice, and I need comfort again.
- I Taste a Liquor Never Brewed* (J 214, F 207), 718
Here's a riddle: Who or what can taste a liquor that was never brewed?
- Much Madness Is Divinest Sense* (J 435, D 620), 718
Who makes and controls the definitions of madness and sanity?
- My Life Closed Twice Before Its Close* (J 1732, F 1773), 719
How deep is the grief at parting with loved ones?
- My Triumph Lasted Till the Drums* (J 1227, F 1212), 719
Before doing battle, people should think of the horror of warfare.
- One Need Not Be a Chamber – To Be Haunted* (J 670, F 407), 719
One can wall out danger, but not the danger within oneself.
- Safe in Their Alabaster Chambers* (J 216, F 124), 720
When is one safe from natural and political change?
- Some Keep the Sabbath Going to Church* (J 324, F 236), 720
Does one need to attend church to practice religion?
- The Soul Selects Her Own Society* (J 303, F 409), 721
What is the effect of limiting one's life and friends?
- Success Is Counted Sweetest* (J 67, F 112), 721
Who recognizes success better than the unsuccessful?
- Tell All the Truth but Tell It Slant* (J 1129, F 1263), 721
People sometimes cannot bear the immediate light of truth.
- There's a Certain Slant of Light* (J 258, F 320), 722
How can a certain slant of light disturb our souls?
- This World Is Not Conclusion* (J 501, F 373), 722
Why have believers borne contempt and crucifixion?
- Wild Nights – Wild Nights!* (J 249, F 269), 723
Do wild nights give moorage and peace to the spirit?
- ROBERT FROST (1874-1963), 723
- Life and Work*, 723 • Poetic Characteristics, 726 • Poetic Subjects, 727 • Bibliographic Sources, 728 • Special Topics for Writing and Argument about the Poetry of Robert Frost, 728

POEMS BY ROBERT FROST, 729

Alphabetical List

- Acquainted with the Night* (1928), 734
- Birches* (1915), 730
- Choose Something like a Star* (1943), 736
- A Considerable Speck* (1942), 735
- Desert Places* (1936), 610
- Design* (1936), 734
- Fire and Ice* (1920), 733
- Mending Wall* (1914), 729
- Misgiving* (1923); 733
- Nothing Gold Can Stay* (1923), 733
- 'Out, Out—' (1916), 732
- The Road Not Taken* (1915), 731
- The Silken Tent* (1936), 735
- Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening* (1923), 464
- The Strong Are Saying Nothing* (1937), 735

Chronological List

- Mending Wall* (1914), 729
Is neighborliness created only by good fences?
- Birches* (1915), 730
How is life like a boy swinging from a birch tree to the ground?
- The Road Not Taken* (1915), 731
How important is choosing the road that has been less traveled?
- 'Out, Out—' (1916), 732
Shouldn't children play rather than work?
- Fire and Ice* (1920), 733
Which is more destructive, rage or indifference?
- Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening* (1923), 464
Why does the speaker tell about driving on after pausing to see the winter scene?
- Misgiving* (1923), 733
Falling autumn leaves suggest thoughts of continued life.

- Nothing Gold Can Stay* (1923), 733
What happens to dawn, and to spring days?
- Acquainted with the Night* (1928), 734
This genial poet confesses to having a dark side.
- Desert Places* (1936), 610
What is more frightening than the emptiness of outer space?
- Design* (1936), 734
Does design, or destiny, govern all life, from big to small?
- The Silken Tent* (1936), 735
How can the attractiveness of a loved one be explained?
- The Strong Are Saying Nothing* (1937), 735
Does seasonal growth suggest "little or much" about eternity?
- A Considerable Speck* (1942), 735
What does the speaker feel glad about seeing "on any sheet" of paper?
- Choose Something like a Star* (1943), 736
What can keep people steady even though their ideas are different?

20

EIGHTY-SIX POEMS FOR ADDITIONAL STUDY AND ENJOYMENT

738

- ANONYMOUS (NAVAJO) *Healing Prayer from the Beautyway
Chant*, 740
What is the hope of this prayer?
- MARGARET ATWOOD Variation on the Word Sleep, 741
What is the hope of one in deepest love?
- IMAMU AMIRI BARAKA (LEROI JONES) Ka 'Ba, 741
How can Blacks create a new correspondence with themselves?
- WENDELL BERRY Another Descent, 742
How does the melting snow suggest a return to our roots?
- LOUISE BOGAN Women, 742
Is it the role of women to be provident?
- ARNA BONTEMPS A Black Man Talks of Reaping, 743
Why should a Black man not receive the fruits of his toil?
- ELIZABETH BARRETT BROWNING *Sonnets from the Portuguese, No. 43:
How Do I Love Thee?*, 743
Is it possible to count the ways in which one loves?
- ROBERT BROWNING Soliloquy of the Spanish Cloister, 744
Does this monk sound like a monk?

- LEONARD COHEN 'The killers that run . . .', 746
Is there any possible good end to political agitation?
- BILLY COLLINS Days, 746
Each day is precious, though also precarious.
- FRANCES CORNFORD From A Letter to America on a Visit to Sussex, Spring 1942, 747
While men train for battle, larks sing.
- STEPHEN CRANE Do Not Weep, Maiden, for War Is Kind, 748
The rationalization for war cannot overbalance the horror of war.
- E.E. CUMMINGS if there are any heavens, 748
The speaker's mother and father deserve any and all heavens.
- JAMES DICKEY The Lifeguard, 749
The boy drowns, and guilt overwhelms the unsuccessful lifeguard.
- JOHN DONNE The Good Morrow, 750
This clever poem exalts love and lovemaking.
- JOHN DONNE Holy Sonnet 10: Death Be Not Proud, 751
How does eternal life put down death?
- PAUL LAURENCE DUNBAR Sympathy, 751
Why does the caged bird sing?
- JAMES EMANUEL The Negro, 752
How can Negroes achieve their own identities?
- LYNN EMANUEL Like God, 752
Does God script our lives the way a story writer creates fiction?
- CHIEF DAN GEORGE The Beauty of the Trees, 754
What is it that makes the speaker's heart soar?
- NIKKI GIOVANNI Woman, 754
Can a woman be anyone else than a woman?
- MARILYN HACKER Sonnet Ending with a Film Subtitle, 755
How does a woman steel herself against betrayal?
- JOHN HAINES Little Cosmic Dust Poem, 755
Love is undeniably the center of the universe.
- DANIEL HALPERN Snapshot of Huế, 756
Once the debris of war is gone, the horror is only a dim memory.
- H. S. (SAM) HAMOD Leaves, 756
The son follows in the footsteps of his Arabic father.
- FRANCES E. W. HARPER She's Free!, 757
In this pre-Civil War poem, a former slave rejoices in gaining freedom.

- MICHAEL S. HARPER Called, 758
It is dangerous for domesticated animals to break free.
- ROBERT HASS Spring Rain, 759
Spring rain is part of a natural cycle of planting and growth.
- ROBERT HAYDEN Those Winter Sundays, 759
A father does many loving duties that are unknown to his children.
- WILLIAM HEYEN The Hair: Jacob Korman's Story, 760
Polish Jews resisted fiercely before being forced to go to the Nazi death camps.
- A. D. HOPE Advice to Young Ladies, 760
How difficult has it been for women, historically, to assert themselves?
- GERARD MANLEY HOPKINS Pied Beauty, 761
Praise God for all of Nature's varied beauty.
- LANGSTON HUGHES Negro, 762
What are just a few of the outrages experienced by Blacks?
- LANGSTON HUGHES The Negro Speaks of Rivers, 762
Blacks have worked as slaves along all the famous rivers of history.
- ROBINSON JEFFERS The Answer, 763
Love should preserve and save all creation, not just the human race.
- JOHN KEATS Ode on a Grecian Urn, 763
Beauty and truth alone remain though generations pass from the earth.
- IRVING LAYTON Rhine Boat Trip, 765
What terrible memory overshadows the beauty of German traditions?
- LI-YOUNG LEE A Final Thing, 765
How miraculous and transforming is the birth of a child?
- ALAN P. LIGHTMAN In Computers, 766
If all experience is saved in computers, will anything be lost?
- LIZ LOCHHEAD The Choosing, 767
What choices made in childhood make such differences in adulthood?
- AUDRE LORDE Every Traveler Has One Vermont Poem, 768
Even in Arcadia there is ugliness.
- AMY LOWELL Patterns, 769
A woman learns that her fiancé has been killed in overseas battle.
- CLAUDE MCKAY The White City, 771
What things about the "white city" make the speaker hate?
- W. S. MERWIN Listen, 772
Despite everything bad, there is cause for thanks.
- N. SCOTT MOMADAY The Bear, 772
An aged bear represents the force and mystery of Nature.

- HOWARD NEMEROV Life Cycle of Common Man, 773
 A life of living accumulates a good deal of physical and cultural detritus.
- JIM NORTHROP wahbegan, 774
 Not all casualties of war are named on tombstones.
- MARY OLIVER Ghosts, 775
 As Americans won the West, they created vast fields of death.
- LINDA PASTAN Marks, 776
 How is life as a mother and wife comparable to a student's life?
- MARGE PIERCY The Secretary Chant, 777
 How does business life affect womanhood?
- SYLVIA PLATH Last Words, 777
 How is the speaker's entombment like that of an Egyptian mummy?
- SYLVIA PLATH Mirror, 778
 Over time, what does the mirror itself see?
- JOHN CROWE RANSOM Bells for John Whiteside's Daughter, 779
 Why did death take away the life in so vigorous a little body?
- JOHN RAVEN Assailant, 779
 The speaker describes a surprising and unusual assailant.
- SONIA SANCHEZ rite on: white america, 779
 Because of the treatment of Blacks, America is still a pioneer land.
- CARL SANDBURG Chicago, 780
 Why does this city sing and laugh so proudly?
- SIEGFRIED SASSOON Dreamers, 781
 Even when the guns begin, what do soldiers really think about?
- CJERTRUD SCHNACKENBERG The Paperweight, 781
 A paperweight house in falling snow tells us what?
- ALAN SEEGER I Have a Rendezvous with Death, 782
 What is this rendezvous, and what rendezvous would be better?
- BRENDA SEROTTE My Mother's Face, 783
 In the mirror, whom does the speaker think she sees?
- WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE Fear No More the Heat o' the Sun, 783
 How does death mark an end of fear and care?
- WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE *Sonnet 29: When in Disgrace with Fortune
 and Men's Eyes*, 784
 In the midst of despair and self-doubt, what can lift up the soul?
- WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE Sonnet 146: Poor Soul, the Center of My Sinful Earth, 784
 How can the soul outlast death itself?

- KARL SHAPIRO Auto Wreck, 784
What is the meaning and where is the purpose in accidental death?
- LESLIE MARMON SILKO *Where Mountain Lion Lay Down
with Deer*, 785
How long has it been since the earth itself created life?
- DAVE SMITH Bluejays, 786
In danger, the birds stay in the trees, cautious but also interested.
- STEVIE SMITH Not Waving But Drowning, 787
Can a friendly wave be distinguished from a gesture for help?
- GARY SOTO Oranges, 787
On a first date, a boy benefits from a clerk's understanding.
- WILLIAM STAFFORD Traveling Through the Dark, 788
To save others, should some be sacrificed?
- GERALD STERN Burying an Animal on the Way to New York, 789
Hurrying cars leave the ghosts of dead animals in their wake.
- WALLACE STEVENS The Emperor of Ice-Cream, 789
The empire of ice cream melts, but it gives pleasure while it exists.
- MAY SWENSON Question, 790
Where do we go without our bodies to carry us?
- JAMES TATE The Blue Booby, 790
How little, or how much, is needed by males to court females?
- JOHN UPDIKE Perfection Wasted, 791
What happens when your own brand of magic ceases forever?
- SHELLY WAGNER The Boxes, 792
A mother thinks of the boxes with which her son might have played.
- ALICE WALKER Revolutionary Petunias, 793
What is the difference between vengeance and justice?
- EDMUND WALLER Go, Lovely Rose, 793
What is the common fate of all things rare?
- BRUCE WEIGL Song of Napalm, 794
Is there any way to deny the agony of those lost in war?
- PHILLIS WHEATLEY On Being Brought from Africa to America, 795
This eighteenth-century poem tells us that Blacks, too, may be angels.
- WALT WHITMAN Full of Life Now, 795
Be not too certain but I am now with you.
- WALT WHITMAN Dirge for Two Veterans, 796
At what point during war can human beings be reconciled?
- RICHARD WILBUR April 5, 1974, 797
From the soft ground will come flowers.

PLAYS FOR STUDY, 867SOPHOCLES Oedipus the King, 867

Can anyone, even a great king, evade Destiny or Fate?

Renaissance Drama and Shakespeare's Theater, 909WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE Hamlet, 914

In this, the greatest play in English literature, the harmfulness of an initial act of evil affects the highest and most influential people in the kingdom of Denmark.

Writing about Tragedy, 1018 • An Essay about a Problem, 1019 • Demonstrative Student Essay: The Problem of Hamlet's Apparent Delay, 1022 • Special Topics for Writing and Argument about Tragedy, 102523*THE COMIC VISION: RESTORING THE BALANCE*1027The Origins of Comedy*, 1027 • Comedy from Roman Times to the Renaissance, 1030 • The Patterns, Characters, and Language of Comedy, 1031 • Types of Comedy, 1033PLAYS FOR STUDY, 1036WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE A Midsummer Night's Dream, 1036

The problems faced by lovers are resolved through the magic of the natural world, not the legal rules of government and custom.

Comedy from Shakespeare's Day to the Present, 1093ANTON CHEKHOV The Bear, 1095

A bachelor and a widow meet and immediately detest each other, but their lives are about to undergo great change.

BETH HENLEY Am I Blue, 1105

Two souls in the process of getting lost find each other and regain much of what they were losing.

Writing about Comedy, 1121 • Demonstrative Student Essay: Setting as Symbol and Comic Structure in A Midsummer Night's Dream, 1123 • Special Topics for Writing and Argument about Comedy, 112524*THREE PLAYS FOR ADDITIONAL STUDY
AND ENJOYMENT*1127Henrik Ibsen, A Dollhouse*, 1127 • Ibsen's Life and Early Work, 1128 • Ibsen's Major Prose Plays, 1128 • A Dollhouse: Ibsen's Best-Known Realistic Problem Play, 1129

HENRIK IBSEN A Dollhouse.(Et Dukkehjem), 1131

In a seemingly perfect household, both Nora and then Torvald discover that all is not and was not well in their lives.

Langston Hughes, Mulatto, 1182 • Hughes and the African-American Theater after 1920, 1183 • Hughes's Career as a Dramatist, 1183 • Mulatto and the Reality of the Southern Black Experience, 1184

LANGSTON HUGHES Mulatto, 1185

Life on a Georgia plantation in the 1930s begins to shake, and then it crumbles.

Arthur Miller, Death of a Salesman, 1209 • Miller's Career in the Post-World War II Years, 1209 • Death of a Salesman and the Well-Made Play, 1209 • Death of a Salesman: Tragedy, Symbolism, and Broken Dreams, 1210

ARTHUR MILLER Death of a Salesman, 1212

Willie Loman, the salesman, after many years of responsibilities, hard work, failure, and unfulfilled hopes, still clings to his dreams of success.

SPECIAL WRITING TOPICS ABOUT LITERATURE

1279

25 WRITING AND DOCUMENTING THE RESEARCH ESSAY

1281

Selecting a Topic, 1281 • Setting up a Bibliography, 1283 • Online Library Services, 1284 • Taking Notes and Paraphrasing Material, 1286 • Documenting Your Work, 1295 • Strategies for Organizing Ideas in Your Research Essay, 1299 • Demonstrative Student Research Essay: The Ghost in Hamlet, 1301

26 CRITICAL APPROACHES IMPORTANT
IN THE STUDY OF LITERATURE

1309

Moral/Intellectual, 1310 • Topical/Historical, 1311 • New Critical/Formalist, 1312 • Structuralist, 1314 • Feminist, 1315 • Economic Determinist/Marxist, 1316 • Psychological/Psychoanalytic, 1317 • Archetypal/Symbolic/Mythic, 1319 • Deconstructionist, 1320 • Reader-Response, 1321

27	TAKING EXAMINATIONS ON LITERATURE	1324
	Answer the Questions That Are Asked, 1324 • Systematic Preparation, 1326 • Two Basic Types of Questions about Literature, 1329
28	COMPARISON-CONTRAST AND EXTENDED COMPARISON-CONTRAST: LEARNING BY SEEING LITERARY WORKS TOGETHER	1335
	Guidelines for the Comparison-Contrast Method, 1336 • The Extended Comparison-Contrast Essay, 1339 • Writing a Comparison-Contrast Essay, 1340 • Demonstrative Student Essay (Two Works): The Treatment of Responses to War in Amy Lowell's "Patterns" and Wilfred Owen's "Anthem for Doomed Youth," 1341 • Demonstrative Student Essay (Extended Comparison-Contrast): Literary Treatments of the Conflicts between Private and Public Life, 1344 • Special Topics for Writing and Argument about Comparison and Contrast, 1348
	APPENDIX I. MLA RECOMMENDATIONS FOR DOCUMENTING ELECTRONIC SOURCES	1349
	APPENDIX II. BRIEF BIOGRAPHIES OF THE POETS IN PART II	1353
	GLOSSARY OF LITERARY TERMS	1377
	CREDITS	1399
	INDEX OF AUTHORS, TITLES, AND FIRST LINES OF POETRY	1407