

Longing, Belonging, and the Making of Jewish Consumer Culture

Edited by

Gideon Reuveni and Nils Roemer

BRILL

LEIDEN • BOSTON

2010

CONTENTS

Notes on the Contributors .....	ix
Introduction: Longing, Belonging, and the Making of Jewish Consumer Culture .....	1
Nils Roemer and Gideon Reweni
Jewish Consumer Culture in Historical and Contemporary Perspective .....	23
David Biale
German-Jewish Spatial Cultures: Consuming and Refashioning Jewish Belonging in Berlin, 1890–1910 .....	39
Sarah E. Wobick-Segev
Jewish Identity, Mass Consumption, and Modern Design .....	61
Elana Shapira
Longing and Belonging: French Impressionism and Jewish Patronage .....	91
Veronica Grodzinski
Advertising, Jewish Ethnic Marketing, and Consumer Ambivalence in Weimar Germany .....	113
Gideon Reweni
Jews as Consumers and Providers in Provincial Towns: The Example of Linz and Salzburg, 1900–1938 .....	139
Michael John
How to Cook in Palestine: Kurfürstendamm Meets Rehov Ben Jehuda .....	163
Joachim Schlör

Di toyre fun skhoyre, or, I Shop, Therefore I Am: The Consumer Cultures of American Jews .....	183
Jeffrey Shandler
Consuming Identities: German-Jewish Performativity after the “Schoah” .....	201
David Brenner
Index .....	227