

The Centennial History of the Independent Labour Party

A Collection of Essays edited by
David James, Tony Jowitt and Keith Laybourn

Ryburn Academic Publishing

Contents

Acknowledgements	7
Abbreviations	7
Notes on Contributors	9
Introduction	11
Section I: Regional Studies
1. The ILP in the North East of England A. W. Purdue	17
2. The ILP in Lancashire and the North West Jeffrey Hill	43
3. The ILP and the Scottish National Question Ian S. Wood	63
4. Breaking Moulds: The Leicester ILP and Popular Politics Bill Lancaster	75
Section II: Local Study — Bradford
1. Late Victorian and Edwardian Bradford Tony Jowitt	95
2. The Manningham Mills Strike, December 1890 to April 1891 Keith Laybourn	117
3. The Bradford ILP and Trade Unionism c.1890–1914 Keith Laybourn	137
4. War and Socialism: the Experience of the Bradford ILP 1914–18 Tony Jowitt and Keith Laybourn	163

The Centennial History of the ILP

Section III: Issues and Subjects

1. 'A Call to Arms': the Struggle for Socialist Unity
in Britain, 1883–1914 181
Martin Crick
2. Women and the ILP, 1890–1914 205
June Hannam
3. 'Trailed on the tail of a comet': the Yorkshire Miners and the ILP, 1885–1908' 229
Andrew Taylor
4. Religion and the ILP 259
Leonard Smith
5. The ILP and Education: the Bradford Charter 277
Carolyn Steedman
6. The ILP and the Second International:
the Early Years, 1893–1905 299
Chris Wrigley

Section IV: Review of Literature and Records

1. Recent Writing on the History of the ILP, 1893–1932 317
Keith Laybourn
 2. Researching the History of the ILP 337
David James
 3. The ILP: a Century for Socialism 365
Barry Winter
- Index 369