

Trade Unions and the Economic Crisis of the 1980s

Edited by WILLIAM BRIERLEY
School of Languages and Area Studies, Portsmouth Polytechnic

Gower

Contents

Editor's Foreword	vii
List of Contributors	ix
PART I WESTERN EUROPE
1. Trade unions, industrial change and the effects of recession in West Germany and the United Kingdom by Rob Atkinson	3
2. Italian trade unions: from unity to disunity, 1972-1986 by Bill Brierley	27
3. Labour confederations and Socialist governments in France, 1981-1986 by Jeff Bridgford and Peter Morris	46
4. Trade unions and industrial relations in Spain: the response to the economic crisis by Richard Hawkesworth and Lluís Fina	64

PART II EASTERN EUROPE

- | | |
|---|-----|
| 5. Trade unions and economic crisis in Poland by Frances Millard | 87 |
| 6. Reality versus theory in the Yugoslav self-management system
by Mica Jovanovic | 101 |

PART III DEVELOPING COUNTRIES

- | | |
|---|-----|
| 7. Economic crisis and stability of employment in the Brazilian motor industry
by John Humphrey | 119 |
| 8. Labour, the oil boom and economic recession in Ecuador
by David Corkill | 132 |
| 9. Trade unionism on the periphery: the case of the Bolivian mineworkers 1965-1985
by Gail Martin | 150 |
| 10. The crisis of trade unionism in Turkey by Hüseyin Ramazanoglu | 172 |
| 11. South Africa in crisis: the role of the black trade unions
by Mark Mitchell and Dave Russell | 190 |