

International Perspectives in Curriculum History

EDITED BY
IVOR GOODSON

CROOM HELM
London • Sydney • Wolfeboro, New Hampshire

CONTENTS

1. Introduction
Ivor Goodson 1
2. Relations, Structures and Conditions in Curriculum Change: A Political History of English Teaching 1970-85
Stephen J. Ball 17
3. The Emergence and Redefining of English for the Common School
1889-1984
Bjørg Brandtzaeg Gudem 46
4. Tensions and Realignments:
School Physics in British Columbia
1955-80
Patricia M. Rowell and
P. James Gaskell 74
5. Process of Curriculum Change:
An Historical Sketch of Science
Education in the Alte Schools
Louis M. Smith 107
6. Science Curriculum Change in Victorian England: A Case Study of the Science of Common Things
Derek Hodson 139
7. The Development of a Senior School
Geography Curriculum in Western Australia 1964-84
Colin J. Marsh 179

Contents

8.	An Historical Perspective on Justifying the Teaching of Mathematics George M.A. Stanic	209
9.	Who Controls the Curriculum? The Story of 'New Maths' 1960-80 Bob Moon	228
10.	John Dewey in Sweden. Notes on Progressivism in Swedish Education 1900-1945 Ulf P. Lundgren	261
11.	Education for an Urban America: Ralph Tyler and the Curriculum Field Barry M. Franklin	277
12.	Curriculum History in England and New Zealand Gary McCulloch	297
	Notes on Contributors	328
	Index	332