

A Holocaust Crossroads

Jewish Women and Children in Ravensbrück

Edited by

IRITH DUBLON-KNEBEL

VALLENTINE MITCHELL
LONDON • PORTLAND, OR

Contents

List of Contributors	vii
Introduction: A Holocaust Crossroads: A Socio-Historical Perspective Irith Dublon-Knebel and Hanna Herzog	1
1. The History of Ravensbrück Concentration Camp as Reflected in its Changing and Expanding Functions Iris Nachum and Dina Porat	17
2. Five Periods in the History of the Jewish Prisoners of the Ravensbrück Women's Concentration Camp Judith Buber Agassi	37
3. Missing Voices: Jewish Prisoners in Ravensbrück Concentration Camp, 1939–1942 Linde Apel	53
4. The Report of Marianne Wachstein Irith Dublon-Knebel	77
5. 'We're All Well and Hoping to Hear the Same from You Soon...': The Story of a Group of Families Irith Dublon-Knebel	96
6. Malchow: An External Camp of Ravensbrück Irith Dublon-Knebel	122
7. Infirmary Cards – Ravensbrück, August 1944 Irith Dublon-Knebel	155
8. Do We Have a Home? The 'Sense of Home' in the Narratives of Jewish Women Survivors of Ravensbrück Hanna Herzog and Adriana Kemp	176
9. Faith in the Face of Hell Liat Steir-Livny	205
10. History and Politics of the Rescue of Jewish Prisoners by the Swedish Red Cross in the 'White Bus' Operation Sabine Kittel	221
11. Liberation – Survival – Freedom: Jewish Prisoners of Ravensbrück Concentration Camp Recall Their Liberation Sabine Kittel	241

Bibliography	262
Index	282