

The British Communist Party and the Trade Unions

1933–45

Nina Fishman

SCOLAR
PRESS

Contents

List of abbreviations	ix
Acknowledgements	xiii
1 Introduction	1
2 The Origins of Revolutionary Pragmatism	21
3 The British Road to the United Front	48
4 In Pursuit of the Real United Front	66
5 Waiting for the National Militant Upsurge	83
6 Rank and File Movements: Communist Myth and Practical Reality	107
7 The Battle of Harworth	164
8 Organizing the United Front against the Bosses	200
9 Organizing the United Front against Fascism	227
10 Fighting the War on Two Fronts	251
11 The Shopfloor War Economy 1939–1945	284
12 Conclusion	331
Appendix One: CPGGB Membership 1931–45	345
Appendix Two: Communist Party Members Elected to AEU Office, 1933–45	352
Appendix Three: Trade Union Membership, 1921–45	356
Bibliography	357
Index	371