

Restructuring Public Schooling: Europe, Canada, America

Ed. by Stephen Lawton, Rodney Reed, Fons van Wieringen

Waxmann Münster/New York
München/Berlin

CONTENTS

Foreword .....	1
Education for Tomorrow's Society: Autonomy, Quality, and What Else? ...	3
Ferdinand J.H. Mertens, Vice-Chairman Governing Board Dutch Ministry of Education and Science
On the Evolution of Public Educational Policies in Europe .....	13
Roeland J. in 't Veld, Dean Netherlands School of Government, Erasmus University, Rotterdam
Structures and Restructuring in Canadian Education .....	25
Stephen B. Lawton University of Toronto
Education in Quebec and Canada: A Critical Outlook .....	37
Monique Jérôme-Forget, President Institute for Research on Public Policy, Montréal
Plus ça change, plus c'est la même chose? Evolution or Revolution in Canadian Education .....	49
Stephen T. Easton, Professor of Economics Simon Fraser University, British Columbia
School Autonomy: A Framework for a European Comparison .....	59
Fons van Wieringen, Professor University of Amsterdam
Autonomy of Schools in England and Wales .....	75
Rowie Shaw, Headteacher Tong Upper School, Bradford, England

National School Reform and Restructuring: Parallels between Britain and the United States .....	89
William Lowe Boyd, Distinguished Professor Pennsylvania State University
Reinventing Central Office: Toward a System of Successful Urban Schools .....	97
Anne C. Hallett, Executive Director Cross City Campaign for Urban School Reform, Chicago
The Role of Information Management in Restructuring Education .....	113
Veronica S. Lacey, Director of Education North York Board of Education, Ontario
Using School-Based Management to Restructure Schools: The Chicago Experience .....	133
G. Alfred Hess, Jr., Executive Director Chicago Panel on School Policy
Restructuring as a Fiscal Restraint Measure in Ontario School Systems .....	155
Donald Musella and Mark Ryall The Ontario Institute for Studies in Education
Five Reasons School Autonomy May Not Improve Student Achievement and Five Implications for Redesigning Schools .....	167
C.L. Hutchins, Executive Director Mid-continent Regional Educational Laboratory, Denver
Site-Based Management: Will It Work in Educational Restructuring? .....	179
Lyn M. Hutchins, Aurora, Colorado
Restructuring Schooling to Date: An Assessment .....	191
Stephen Lawton, Theo Liket, Rodney Reed, Fons van Wieringen	