

Eugene F. Provenzo, Jr.
University of Miami

An Introduction to Education in American Society

Charles E. Merrill Publishing Company
A Bell & Howell Company
Columbus Toronto London Sydney

Contents

PART I

Education and Teaching In American Society 1

1 Education and American Society 3

"The Great School Legend"	6
Schools as Vehicles of Social Reform	7
Schools and Education in Context	8
Goals of American Education	9
American Education in the Final Decades of the 20th Century	10
Dare the School Build a New Social Order?	11
Conclusion	12
Discussion Questions	13
Sources	13

2 Education as Socialization 15

Education and Power	16
Education as Cultural Capital	17
Paulo Freire—Education as Cultural Action for Freedom	18
Educational Colonialism	19

The Nature and Purpose of Schooling	21
Conclusion	22
Discussion Questions	23
Sources	23

3 The Aims of Education 25

Paul Goodman—Deschooling Society	26
Ivan Illich—Deschooling Society	28
The Aims of Education	30
Conclusion	31
Discussion Questions	31
Sources	31

4 Teachers in American Society 33

Teaching in America: An Overview	33
Teaching in America: Historical Development	34
Teacher Tenure	41
The Professional Socialization of Teachers	42
Teacher Supply and Demand	46
Unions	48
Teachers' Rights	51
Merit Pay for Teachers	53
The Teacher as a Social Force	54
The Teacher as a Moral Force	55
Conclusion	56
Discussion Questions	56
Sources	56

PART II

The Organization and Control of American Schools 59

5 Local and State Involvement in American Education 61

School Districts and School Boards	61
Historical Foundations	62
Contemporary School Boards	63
Principals	65
Education and the State	67
The Superintendent of Schools	67
Financing the Schools	70
State Involvement in Education	72

	Deschooling Society	72
	Controls and Influences	73
	Conclusion	75
	Discussion Questions	75
	Sources	75
6	Federal Involvement in American Education	77
	Early Federal Involvement	77
	The Land Grant College Act of 1862	79
	The United States Office of Education	79
	Patterns of Federal Influence	80
	Federal Control of Education: Summary	83
	Desegregating Contact Sports	84
	Conclusion	84
	Discussion Questions	85
	Sources	85
7	Private Education in America	87
	Origins of Private Education	88
	Catholic Education	90
	Issues in Private Education	92
	Educational Vouchers and Tuition Tax Credits	93
	Public Funding for Private Schools	94
	Conclusion	95
	Discussion Questions	95
	Sources	95
PART III
	Multiculturalism and the Family in American Society	99
8	Cultural Pluralism	101
	The Americanization of Immigrants	103
	Anti-Immigrant Sentiment in 19th Century Editorial Cartoons	104
	Cultural Pluralism	107
	Americanizing the Immigrant	108
	Restrictions on Immigration	109
	The New Immigration	110
	Multicultural Education	116
	Conclusion	116
	Discussion Questions	117
	Sources	117

9 Ethnicity and American Education 119

Culture and Ethnicity	120
A Survey of Ethnics	121
Japanese Americans	122
Prejudiced in Favor	124
German Americans	124
Puerto Rican Americans	126
Bilingualism and American Education	127
Legal Issues and Bilingualism	130
Bilingualism and Ethnicity	131
Conclusion	132
Discussion Questions	132
Sources	132

10 Religion and American Education 135

Judicial Decisions	137
In God We Trust	137
Fundamentalism and the Schools	140
A Moment of Silence?	141
Fundamentalism and Secular Humanism	141
Conclusion	144
Discussion Questions	144
Sources	144

11 Childhood, the Family, and Education 147

The Great Change in Childhood	148
Childhood and Contemporary Culture	151
The Child as Adult	153
The Rights of Children	155
The Family as Educator	155
The Family and Compulsory Education	157
Compulsory Education	158
Home Education	160
Is Compulsory Education a Waste of Time?	160
Conclusion	162
Discussion Questions	163
Sources	163

XV

CONTENTS

PART IV

Education and Equality 165

12 Black Education 167

- Blacks and American Education 170
- Brown v. the Board of Education 174
- The Desegregation of Central High School, Little Rock 174
- Busing 177
- Busing and South Boston 178
- Compensatory Education 180
- Reverse Discrimination 181
- Conclusion 182
- Discussion Questions 183
- Sources 184

13 Women and Education 187

- Women and American Education 190
- Sexism and Language 193
- Women and Contemporary Education 193
- Sexual Discrimination in the Classroom 196
- Sexism in Children's Books and Textbooks 196
- Sexism and History Books 198
- Conclusion 199
- Discussion Questions 199
- Sources 199

14 Native American Education 201

- Colonialism and Native American Education 202
- The Failure of Native American Schooling 206
- Dick and Jane and the Navaho 208
- Indian Controlled Schools and Curricula 208
- Educating Americans about Native Americans 209
- Conclusion 210
- Discussion Questions 210
- Sources 211

15 The Education of the Handicapped and the Gifted 213

- The Emerging Interest in Special Education 213
- The Vocational Rehabilitation Act of 1973 218
- Public Law 94-142 218
- Equal Access and the Special Student 219
- The Boy in the Box 221
- The Gifted and the Talented as Special Students 222
- Conclusion 225
- Discussion Questions 225
- Sources 226

PART VTextbooks, Television, and Computers 229*16 Textbooks and the Curriculum 231

- Textbooks as a Business and Industry 231
- 18th and 19th Century Textbooks 232
- Ethnocentrism in Nineteenth-Century Geography Texts 234
- Contemporary Conflicts: Kanawha County, West Virginia 235
- Censorship and Education 238
- Cultural Diversity—Different Views About Education 240
- State Adoptions of Textbooks 241
- The Gablers 243
- The Rights of the Censors 245
- The Content of Textbooks 246
- Conclusion 246
- Discussion Questions 247
- Sources 247

17 Television and Education 249

- Television and Learning in the Classroom 251
- How Television Has Changed Family Life 251
- Television's Perceived Promise as an Educator 252
- Effects of Children's Programming on Learning 253
- Television and the Socialization of the Child 254

Ethnic, Racial, and Sex-Role Stereotyping	255
Television as a Type of Learning	255
TV-Viewing, Violence, and Aggression	256
Advertising and Television	257
Conclusion	259
Discussion Questions	260
Sources	260

18 Computers and Education 263

The New Teaching Machines	265
Tutor, Tool, or Tutee?	266
Computer Education	267
Consequences of the Computer Revolution	268
Computer Literacy	269
Equal Access and the Microcomputer	270
Teaching in the Computer Age	271
Conclusion	272
Discussion Questions	272
Sources	272

Conclusion 275

Sources	279
---------	-----