

Pedagogy and the Shaping of Consciousness

Linguistic and Social Processes

Edited by
Frances Christie

CASELL

London and New York

Contents

Contributors	vi
Introduction Frances Christie	1
1 Society, language and the mind: the meta-dialogism of Basil Bernstein's theory Ruqaiya Hasan	10
2 Contexts for learning Carmel Cloran	31
3 Preparing for school: developing a semantic style for educational knowledge Clare Painter	66
4 The pedagogic device and the production of pedagogic discourse: a case example in early literacy education Geoff Williams	88
5 Mentoring semogenesis: 'genre-based' literacy pedagogy J. R. Martin	123
6 The pedagogic device and the teaching of English Frances Christie	156
7 Language, knowledge and authority in school mathematics Robert Veal	185
8 Culture, competence and schooling: approaches to literacy teaching in indigenous school education David Rose	217
9 Official knowledge and pedagogic identities Basil Bernstein	246
10 Pedagogic identities and educational reform in the 1990s: the cultural dynamics of national curricula William Tyler	262
Index	290