

INTERNATIONAL POLICIES FOR THIRD WORLD
EDUCATION:
Unesco,
Literacy and Development

PHILLIP W. JONES

ROUTLEDGE

London and New York

Contents

Preface by Gough Whitlam

List of Abbreviations

Introduction	1
1. Global Literacy: the Emergence of a Policy Framework	6
Literacy, multilateralism and the origins of Unesco	7
Ends and means in the early Unesco program	27
2. Fundamental Education (1946-58)	47
A common ground for all: aspects of a policy	48
Content	55
Social nature	56
Literacy and fundamental education	57
Bearing upon development	59
Fundamental education and productive co-operatives	61
Program experience in fundamental education	65
The Haiti pilot project	65
The study of literacy and illiteracy	72
Asfec and Crefal	81
3. Multilateral Adaptation (1958-66)	88
Fundamental education under fire: UN community development	89
René Maheu and Unesco's 'decisive mutation'	100
External funding and its significance	114
Literacy: universal to functional	130
World Campaign for Universal Literacy	131
The concept of functional literacy	143
4. The Experimental World Literacy Programme (1966-74)	159
Planning the EWLP: political and technical dimensions	160
The Iranian pilot project	175
Evaluation: its nature and implications	193

Contents

5. Literacy in the Crisis Years (1974-87)	212
The Unesco crisis	214
Literacy under M'Bow	233
6. Epilogue: Appraisals	250
Literacy and the cultural and developmental tasks of Unesco	251
Unesco: decision-making for multilateral programming	259
Index	270