

Multicultural Education The Interminable Debate

Edited by

Sohan Modgil PhD

Reader in Educational Research and Development,
Brighton Polytechnic

Gajendra K. Verma PhD

Reader in Education,
University of Manchester

Kanka Mallick PhD

Senior Lecturer in Psychology of Education,
West London Institute of Higher Education

Celia Modgil PhD

Senior Lecturer in Educational Psychology,
University of London

The Falmer Press

(A member of the Taylor & Francis Group)
London and Philadelphia

---

Contents

---

1	Multicultural Education: The Interminable Debate Sohan Modgil, Gajendra Verma, Kanka Mallick, Celia Modgil	1
2	The Concept of Multi-Cultural Education Bhikhu Parekh	19
3	Towards Radical Multiculturalism: Resolving Tensions in Curriculum and Educational Planning Brian Bullivant	33
4	Multiculturalism, Class and Ideology: A European-Canadian comparison Christopher Bagley	49
5	Figure and Section: Ethnography and Education in the Multicultural State Paul David Yates	61
6	Toward Pluralism in Education Harry C. Triandis	77
7	The Canadian Brand of Multiculturalism: Social and Educational Implications Ronald Samuda	101
8	Remodelling Australian Society and Culture: A Study in Education for a Pluralistic Society David Dufty	111
9	Teaching and Learning about Racism: A Critique of Multicultural Education in Britain Mike Cole	123

10	An Initial Typology of Perspectives on Staff Development for Multicultural Teacher Education James Lynch	149
11	The Supplementary School: Development and Implications Roger Homan	167
12	Ethnicity and Educational Achievement Sally Tomlinson	181
13	Comparative Studies of Cognitive Styles and Their Implications for Education in Plural Societies John Berry	195
14	Equality of Opportunity and the Ethnic Minority Child in British Schools John Rex	205
15	Multicultural Education and Its Critics: Britain and the United States James A. Banks	221
	Index	233