

A/505139

Tradition and Culture in the Millennium

Tribal Colleges and Universities

Edited by

Linda Sue Warner

Haskell Indian Nations University

Gerald E. Gipp

American Indian Higher Education Consortium

INFORMATION AGE PUBLISHING, INC.

Charlotte, NC • www.infoagepub.com

CONTENTS

List of Contributors	ix
Series Foreword	xiii
Bruce A. Jones
1 Introduction	1
Linda Sue Warner and Gerald E. Gipp

PART I OUR HISTORY

2 The Story of AIHEC	7
David M. Gipp
3 Tribal Colleges and Universities: Supporting the Revitalization in Indian Country	17
Wayne J. Stein
4 Montana Tribal Colleges	35
James Shanley
5 Growth by Degrees	49
Douglas Clement
6 The Implementation of a World Indigenous Accreditation Authority	61
Ray Barnhardt

PART II

CULTURE AND TRADITION

- 7 Understanding American Indian Cultures 89
Richard Littlebear
- 8 World View and Cultural Behaviors: Strategies and Resources
 Determination in the Tribal Academy..... 93
Rosemary Ackley Christensen

PART III

LEADERSHIP

- 9 Indigenous Governance..... 109
Linda Sue Warner and Kathryn Harris Tijerina
- 10 Oklahoma Tribal College Expansion: Later than Sooner
 Comanche Nation College 133
John W. Tippeconnic III
- 11 Student Retention Initiatives at Tribal Colleges and Universities and Strategies for Improvement 147
Robin Williams and Cornel Pewewardy
- 12 Leadership in American Indian Higher Education..... 161
Gerald E. Gipp

PART IV

OUR FUTURE

- 13 Succession of the Tribal College Presidency 173
Phil Baird
- 14 The Role of the Tribal College Journal in the Tribal College
 Movement..... 189
Marjane Ambler and Paul Boyer

- 15 Technology at the TCUs 201
Carrie L. Billy and Al Kuslikis
- 16 Tribal Colleges and Universities: From Where We Are to
Where We Might Go..... 209
Cheryl Crazybull