Contents

Abstract.....	1
Introduction.....	1
Objectives of Study.....	3
Historical Coal Geology and Stratigraphy .....	3
Early Mapping and Coal-Bed Nomenclature Problems .....	4
State-to-State Mapping Problems.....	4
Coal-Bed Splitting and Merging Problems.....	4
Derivative-Name Problems.....	5
Availability of Data and Data Control-Point Spacing.....	5
Depositional Environments and Facies of Coal-Bearing Strata.....	5
Computerized Modeling.....	6
New Sources of CBM Data.....	7
Revised Basinwide Coal Stratigraphy and Nomenclature .....	7
Depositional Concept of Coal Splitting in the Powder River Basin .....	7
Regional Cross-Section Lines.....	8
Wyodak Coal of Mapel (1973) .....	27
Cross Section H-H' .....	27
Cross Section N-N' .....	28
Basinwide Lateral Variation of the Wyodak Coal.....	28
Basin South of Gillette, Wyoming.....	28
Revised Nomenclature of Wyodak Coal South of Gillette, Wyoming.....	29
Basin North of Gillette, Wyoming.....	29
Revised Nomenclature of Wyodak Coal North of Gillette, Wyoming.....	30
North-South Cross Sections .....	31
Effects of Stratigraphic Overlap of Coal Zones .....	31
Paleodepositional Interpretations .....	34
Paleodeposition of the Wyodak Coal Zone and Related Rocks.....	34
Paleotectonically Controlled Alluvial Drainage.....	37
Interplay of Alluvial Accommodation Space, Tectonics, and Coal Zone Overlap.....	37
Regional Paleogeographic and Paleotectonic Patterns of Merged Coal Bodies.....	39
Summary.....	41
Acknowledgments.....	42
References.....	42
Appendix.....	47
