

Hans Georg Graf

Global Scenarios

Megatrends in Worldwide Dynamics

Verlag Ruediger

\

Contents

Preface	9
Chapter 1: Why Global Scenarios?	13
What are scenarios?	13
When are scenarios necessary?	16
Who works with scenarios?	17
Vision and scenarios	17
What is investigated in scenarios?	18
Structure of a scenario analysis	21
Special features of global scenarios	24
What assumptions are global scenarios based on?	25
How are global scenarios developed as alternative future images?	28
How are the results of global scenarios used?	31
Chapter 2: Starting Situation: Changing Global Economy	35
Increasing international division of labor	35
Increasing number of participants	41
Diversity in affected interrelationships	44
Chapter 3: Structural Adjustment Processes	47
From industrial to knowledge society	47
Knowledge changes employee-employer relationships ...	52
From the individual's viewpoint	52
... and the company's viewpoint	56
New organizational forms	58
Bundling of core competencies	58
Great importance of direct investments	59
'Reach' of corporations	62

From multinational...	63
... to transnational...,	64
... to modular ...	65
... and virtual company	67
New (international) institutions	69
Multilateral agreements and Non-Governmental Organizations (NGO's)	69
Transgovernmental networks	73
The role of supranational integration	76
Supranational and subnational regionalization	76
Continued fundamental importance of states	79
A European state?	80

Chapter 4: Basic Factors Controlling Change Processes 87

Constitution as a basis	87
First step: legal certainty	87
Great importance of institutions	89
Legal certainty, democracy, and market economy	91
Problems with the transitional phase	92
Challenges also for companies	93
Technical progress as a driver	96
Technology as a competitive factor	96
Industrial policy and knowledge transfer	97
Main areas of technological progress	98
From innovation to diffusion	101
Sustainability as a requirement	103
Limited Starship Earth	103
Climate change as an example	104
Climate simulation models	106
International problem definition and approaches to solutions	107

Chapter 5: Areas of Insecurity	113
1998 a peak?	113
Marginalized Africa	115
Flood of short-term capital	116
New vulnerability...	117
... and need for reform	119
Changed geopolitical dynamics	120
In Russia,	121
In Asia,	123
In China,	124
And in Latin America	125
Predominance of economics	125
Monocausal view	125
Reorientation	126
More elasticity required	129
Chapter 6: Four Global Scenarios	133
Global economic imbalances	133
Demographic development	136
Two global OECD scenarios	143
Two alternative scenarios	148
Alternative scenario 3: Macroindustrial Society	149
Alternative scenario 4: 'Gentle Global Society'	153
Chapter 7: Outlook	159
An integrative view	159
Limited distance into the future of scenarios	164
Where do we want to go?	165
Four visions for 2100	166
Choice of criteria crucial for quality of statements	169

Appendix I: Quantitative Results for OECD Scenarios	171
Calculations for OECD scenarios	^ 172
Appendix II: Scenarios, Scenarios ...	185
Global scenarios	186
The new world i&order	186
Which world do we want?	188
Scenarios at the national or regional level	190
GBN scenarios	193
SGZZ scenarios	194
Sectoral scenarios	195
Appendix III: Sources and Organizations	199
References for scenario technique	200
Examples of organizations	202
Bibliography	205
List of Figures	213
List of Tables	215