

FROM BABEL TO DRAGOMANS

INTERPRETING THE MIDDLE EAST

BERNARD LEWIS

OXFORD

UNIVERSITY PRESS

2004

CONTENTS

Acknoivledgments	v
Credits	ix

Introduction	1
--------------	---

PART ONE: PAST HISTORY

1	An Islamic Mosque	15
2	From Babel to Dragomans	18
3	Middle East Feasts	33
4	Iran in History	43
5	Palimpsests of Jewish History: Christian, Muslim and Secular Diaspora	53
6	Some Notes on Land, Money and Power in Medieval Islam	60
7	An Interpretation of Fatimid History	66
8	Propaganda in the Pre-Modern Middle East: A Preliminary Classification	79
9	Monarchy in the Middle East	92
10	Religion and Murder in the Middle East	100
11	The Mughals and the Ottomans	108
12	Europe and the Turks: The Civilization of the Ottoman Empire	115
13	Europe and Islam: Muslim Perceptions and Experience	121
14	Cold War and Detente in the Sixteenth Century	135
15	From Pilgrims to Tourists: A Survey of Middle Eastern Travel	137
16	The British Mandate for Palestine in Historical Perspective	152
17	Pan-Arabism	156
18	The Emergence of Modern Israel	181
19	Orientalist Notes on the Soviet—United Arab Republic Treaty of 27 May 1971	188
20	A Taxonomy of Group Hatred	196
21	Islam and the West	205

PART TWO: CURRENT HISTORY

- 22 The Middle East, Westernized Despite Itself
- 23 The Middle East in World Affairs
- 24 Friends and Enemies: Reflections After a War
- 25 Return to Cairo
- 26 Middle East at Prayer
- 27 At the United Nations
- 28 The Anti-Zionist Resolution
- 29 Right and Left in Lebanon
- 30 The Shi'a
- 31 Islamic Revolution
- 32 The Enemies of God
- 33 The Roots of Muslim Rage
- 34 The Other Middle East Problems
- 35 Did You Say "American Imperialism"?: Power, Weakness, and Choices in the Middle East
- 36 The Law of Islam
- 37 Not Everybody Hates Saddam
- 38 Mideast States: Pawns No Longer in Imperial Games
- 39 What Saddam Wrought
- 40 The "Sick Man" of Today Coughs Closer to Home
- 41 Revisiting the Paradox of Modern Turkey
- 42 We Must Be Clear
- 43 Deconstructing Osama and His Evil Appeal
- 44 Targeted by a History of Hatred
- 45 A Time for Toppling

PART THREE: ABOUT HISTORY

- 46 In Defense of History
- 47 First-Person Narrative in the Middle East
- 48 Reflections on Islamic Historiography
- 49 The Ottoman Archives: A Source for European History
- 50 History Writing and National Revival in Turkey
- 51 On Occidentalism and Orientalism