

The Aesthetics of Organization

edited by

Stephen Linstead and Heather Hopfl

SAGE Publications
London • Thousand Oaks • New Delhi

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Notes on Contributors	viii
Introduction	1
Part 1: Aesthetic Theory
1 The Aesthetic Approach in Organization Studies Antonio Strati	13
2 The Art Management of Aesthetic Organizing Pierre Guillet de Monthoux	35
Part 2: Aesthetic Processes
3 Ashes and Madness: The Play of Negativity and the Poetics of Organization Stephen Linstead	61
4 The Aesthetics of Reticence: Collections and Recollections Heather Hopfl	93
Part 3: Aesthetics and Modes of Analysis
5 'Cutting a Show': Grounded Aesthetics and Entertainment Organizations Brian Rusted	111
6 Routine Pleasures: The Aesthetics of the Mundane David Silverman	130

Part 4: Crafting an Aesthetic

7	Observer Versus Audience Hugo Letiche	154
8	An-aesthetics Pippa Carter and Norman Jackson	180

Part 5: Aesthetics, Ethics and Identity

9	' Suaviter in modo, fortiter in re ': Appearance, Reality and the Early Jesuits Harro Hopfl	197
10	Resurfacing an Aesthetics of Existence as an Alternative to Business Ethics Stephen Cummings	212

Part 6: Radical Aesthetics and Change

11	Cultivating an Aesthetic of Unfolding: Jazz Improvisation as a Self-organizing System Frank J. Barrett	228
12	The Rhythm of the Saints : Cultural Resistance, Popular Music and Collectivist Organization in Salvador, Bahia in Brazil Stewart Clegg	246
	Name Index	264
	Subject Index	270