

Globalization and National Financial Systems

Edited by
James A. Hanson
Patrick Honohan
Giovanni Majnoni

A copublication of the World Bank and Oxford University Press

Contents

Foreword	vii
Contributors	ix
1. Globalization and National Financial Systems: Issues of Integration and Size James A. Hanson, Patrick Honohan, and Giovanni Majnoni	1
PART I. MACROECONOMICS AND GLOBALIZATION
2. Deposit Dollarization and the Financial Sector Patrick Honohan and Anqing Shi	35
PART II. BANKING
3. Bank Efficiency and Financial System Size Biagio Bossone and Jong-Kun Lee	67
4. Are Small Countries “Underbanked”? James A. Hanson	91
5. Foreign Banks in Low-Income Countries: Recent Developments and Impacts Stijn Claessens and Jong-Kun Lee	109
PART III. SECURITIES MARKETS
6. Securities Market Efficiency Ajay Shah and Susan Thomas	145
7. The Value of International Portfolio Diversification Joost Driessen and Luc Laeven	175

PART IV. PENSION ISSUES

- | | | |
|----|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 8. | Pension Reform and Pension Service Efficiencies
Thomas C. Glaessner and Salvador Valdés-Prieto | 191 |
| 9. | Promoting Pension Funds
Gregorio Impavido, Alberto R. Musalem, and Dimitri Vittas | 223 |

PART V. REGULATION

- | | | |
|-----|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 10. | Regulatory Harmonization and the Globalization of Finance
Cally Jordan and Giovanni Majnoni | 259 |
|-----|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|