

The European Neutrals in International Affairs

Hanspeter Neuhold,
Hans Thalberg (eds.)

Wilhelm Braumüller

Universitäts-Verlagsbuchhandlung
Ges. m. b. H.
A-1092 Wien

Österreichisches Institut für Internationale Politik (ÖIIP)
Austrian Institute for International Affairs (AIIA)
A-2361 Laxenburg, Austria

Contents

Editors' Preface	5
Neutrality and Political Good Offices: The Case of Switzerland	7
Pierre du Bois
Austria's Policy of Neutrality: Constants and Variables	17
Karl Zemanek
An Interpretation of Finland's Contributions to European Peace and Security	25
Harto Hakovirta
Sweden: Neutrality, Defense and Disarmament	39
Nils Andrén
Between Lost Illusions and Apocalyptic Fears: Benelux Views on the European Neutrals	59
F. A. M. Alting von Geusau
The Value of the Swedish and the Finnish Policies of Neutrality to the Security of Norway	69
Arne Olav Brundtland
The United States and the European Neutrals	81
Robert Bauer
The European Neutrals and Soviet-American Relations	93
Viktor A. Kremenyuk
Neutrality: A Hungarian View	105
László Valki
In Search of Peace and Security: The Role of the European Neutrals. A Yugoslav Point of View	119
Ljubivoje Aćimović
The European Neutrals and Regional Stability	125
Hans Thalberg
Participants of the Conference	133