

Five Hundred Years A History of South Africa

EDITED BY

C. F. J. MULLER, M.A., D.PHIL.,
EXTRAORDINARY PROFESSOR OF HISTORY,
UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH AFRICA,
PRETORIA

ACADEMICA

PRETORIA CAPE TOWN JOHANNESBURG

Contents

List of Maps	ix
Introduction	xi
W. J. DE KOCK
1. EXPLORERS AND CIRCUMNAVIGATORS OF THE CAPE	I
First movements towards the south. The Portuguese south of the Equator. Da Gama sails round the Southern Land and reaches India. The significance of the Cape to the Portuguese. New circumnavigators and competitors. Regular English and Dutch visitors at the Cape.
A. J. BÖESEKEN
2. THE ARRIVAL OF VAN RIEBEECK AT THE CAPE	18
The Cape and the precious return fleets. The first five years. The free burghers. Dealings with the Hottentots. The last years of Van Riebeeck's stay at the Cape.
A. J. BÖESEKEN
3. THE SETTLEMENT UNDER THE VAN DER STELS	35
Free burghers or officials? Simon van der Stel. Wilhem Adriaen van der Stel.
A. J. BÖESEKEN
4. THE LURE OF AFRICA	50
Expeditions of discovery before 1700. The hunter. The cattle farmer. The trek farmer. Shifting of frontiers.
A. J. BÖESEKEN
5. THE COMPANY AND ITS SUBJECTS	63
Development of central and local power. The Governors and the Council of Policy. Ryk Tulbagh as governor, 1751 - 1771. The Governors and the border farmers.
C. F. J. MULLER
6. DOMESTIC STRIFE AND INTERNATIONAL WARFARE	80
1778 - 1795
Characteristics of the period. The Cape Patriots. The Company, the farmers and the indigenous population. Fruitless Company reforms and the reactions of the burghers. Rebellion at Graaff-Reinet and Swellendam. The first British conquest of the Cape.

- M. C. VAN ZYL
7. TRANSITION, 1795 - 1806 101
 The first British administration, 1795 - 1803. The Batavian period, 1803 - 1806.
- C. R. KOTZÉ
8. A NEW REGIME, 1806 - 1834 117
 Great Britain and the Cape Colony. The administration of the Cape. The Cape Dutch. The British Settlers. The Hottentots. The slaves. The Blacks.
- C. F. J. MULLER
9. THE PERIOD OF THE GREAT TREK, 1834 - 1854 146
 What was the Great Trek? Causes. Shaping. The Republic of Natal. The second Trek. The Conventions grant constitutional recognition. The significance of the Great Trek.
- P. L. SCHOLTZ
10. THE CAPE COLONY, 1853 - 1902 183
 Constitutional and political development. Racial policy. Economic development. Educational, religious and other developments. Conclusion.
- M. C. VAN ZYL
11. NATAL, 1845 - 1902 214
 Pioneer district. The young colony. Progress and responsible government. Greater Natal.
- M. C. E. VAN SCHOOR
12. THE ORANGE FREE STATE 234
 The founding of a republic. Years of endeavour: the establishment of a civil service. An attempt to unite the two republics. J. H. Brand, the architect of a model republic. Reawakening of the desire for Afrikaner unity. M. T. Steyn and the triumph of republicanism.
- J. S. DU PLESSIS
13. THE SOUTH AFRICAN REPUBLIC 256
 Recognition of Transvaal independence. Problems of government and the drafting of a constitution. The term of office of M. W. Pretorius. The term of office of T. F. Burgers. Annexation, war and restoration of independence. The term of office of Paul Kruger: the Triumvirate. First presidential election. Railway policy and development. The discovery of gold and its consequences. The "Uitlander" problem. The Jameson Raid. The Republic versus Chamberlain and Milner. Internal affairs. War.

14. STATES AND COLONIES IN SOUTH AFRICA, 1854 - 1902 297
 Attempts at closer union, 1854 - 1872. New British interest in the interior. Carnarvon's federation scheme. The policy of encirclement. Economic conflicts. Afrikaner nationalism versus British imperialism.

W. J. DE KOCK

15. THE ANGLO-BOER WAR, 1899 - 1902 328
 Boer and Briton take up arms. The first months: the war in British territory. Roberts's advance: the turn of the tide. The fall of Pretoria and after. The War of Movement in full swing. The bitter year of 1901. The last months of the war. The road to peace.

S. B. SPIES

16. RECONSTRUCTION AND UNIFICATION, 1902 - 1910 362
 'Milnerism' and reconstruction. The Afrikaner revival and the reaction against imperialism. South African problems and the closer union movement. The National Convention and the drafting of a constitution. The South Africa Act. The first Union government.

B. J. LIEBENBERG

17. BOTHA AND SMUTS IN POWER, 1910 - 1924 385
 The first election. Afrikaner strife: Hertzog and Botha. The Natives Land Act (No. 27 of 1913). Discontent among mineworkers and Indians. The Rebellion of 1914. From the conquest of S.W.A. to the treaty of Versailles. Smuts succeeds Botha. Growing criticism of Smuts.

18. HERTZOG IN POWER, 1924 - 1939 412
 Political groupings, 1924 - 1929. Hertzog's policy of "civilized labour". Economic development, 1924 - 1929. A Trade Union for non-Whites. Hertzog and the constitutional status of South Africa. The dispute over a flag. The Great Depression of 1930 - 1932. From coalition to fusion. Hertzog and the non-Whites. Afrikaner nationalism 1934 - 1939. Rifts in the United Party. The break between Hertzog and Smuts.

19. SMUTS IN POWER, 1939 - 1948 442
 South Africa and the Second World War. Afrikaner strife. Economic growth. Dissatisfaction amongst the non-Whites. Smuts and the Indians. Political groupings after the Second World War. The election of 26 May, 1948.

20. THE NATIONAL PARTY IN POWER, 1948 - 1961 466
 The National Party: Unity and growth. The opposition: Dissent and decline. The conflict over the Coloured vote. Apartheid. Black homelands. Resistance. South Africa and U.N.O. Economic growth. The triumph of Afrikaner nationalism.

21. THE REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA, 1961 - 1978	508
From Verwoerd to Vorster. The reactionary onslaught. The break-up of the United Party. Black homelands. Sport and politics. Black resistance. White reaction. The Coloureds. Economic development. The Information scandal.
A. M. DAVEY
22. SOUTH AFRICA AND THE AFRICAN CONTINENT	550
The new hinterland. Beyond the Limpopo. South Africa and Southern Rhodesia. Portuguese neighbours. South Africa and the Protectorates. South-West Africa - "The Fifth Province." South Africa and the rest of the African continent.
C. F. J. MULLER
23. CONCLUSION: FACTORS WHICH SHAPED THE HISTORY OF SOUTH AFRICA	574
C. F. J. MULLER
Appendix
SOUTH AFRICAN MONETARY SYSTEMS. A COMPARATIVE TABLE WITH EXPLANATORY NOTES 584
Select Bibliography	586
Index	603