

From Columbus
to Castro:
The History
of the Caribbean
1492—1969

ERIC WILLIAMS

André Deutsch

Contents

Introduction	11
1. Westward Ho!	13
2. Christopher Columbus and the Discovery of the West Indies	18
3. Gold and Sugar	23
4. White Capital and Coloured Labour	30
5. Spanish Colonialism	46
6. Colonial Nationalism	58
7. The Cockpit of Europe	69
8. The Poor Whites	95
9. King Sugar	111
10. Capitalism and Slavery	136
11. The Exclusive	156
12. White Colonials versus Black Colonials	177
13. Crush the Infamy!	201
14. Down with Colonialism! The American Revolution	217
15. Down with Colonialism and Slavery! The Haitian Revolution	237
16. Colonialism and Slavery after the Haitian Revolution	255

17. The Abolition of the Caribbean Slave System	280
(1) The Economic Factors	280
(2) The Political Factors	292
(3) The Humanitarian Agitation	295
(4) International and Intercolonial Rivalry	303
(5) The Social Factors	320
18. The Ordeal of Free Labour	328
19. Asian Immigration	347
20. The West Indian Sugar Economy in the Nineteenth Century	361
21. The Struggle for the World Sugar Market	374
22. Nineteenth-Century Colonialism	392
23. Manifest Destiny	408
24. The American Mediterranean	419
25. The American Sugar Kingdom	428
26. Twentieth-Century Colonialism	443
27. The Colonial Nationalist Movement	463
28. Castroism	479
29. The Future of the Caribbean	498
Select Bibliography	516
Index	559