

Human Rights and World Public Order

The Basic Policies of an International Law of Human Dignity

by Myres S. McDougal, Harold D. Lasswell, and Lung-chu Chen

New Haven and London, Yale University Press, 1980

CONTENTS

Preface	xvii
Part I. Delimitation of the Problem	1
1. Human Rights in Comprehensive Context	3
The Rising Common Demands	7
Demands Relating to Respect	7
Demands Relating to Power	8
Demands Relating to Enlightenment	9
Demands Relating to Well-Being	10
Demands Relating to Wealth	11
Demands Relating to Skill	12
Demands Relating to Affection	12
Demands Relating to Rectitude	13
Inadequate Responses—Deprivations and Nonfulfillment of Human Rights	13
Deprivations Relating to Respect	15
Deprivations Relating to Power	17
Deprivations Relating to Enlightenment	22
Deprivations Relating to Well-Being	26
Deprivations Relating to Wealth	31
Deprivations Relating to Skill	34
Deprivations Relating to Affection	34
Deprivations Relating to Rectitude	36
Conditions Affecting Deprivations and Nonfulfillment	37
Environmental Factors	38
Predispositional Factors	45
Interdependences	47
Inadequacies in Inquiry: The Intellectual Confusion about Human Rights	63
The Natural Law Approach	68
The Historical Approach	71
The Positivist Approach	73
The Marxist (Communist) Approach	76
The Social Science Approach	80

Human Rights in Policy-Oriented Perspective	82
The Establishment of the Observational Standpoint	83
The Delimitation of the Focus of Inquiry	83
The Relation of Human Rights to Social Process	84
The Conception of Authoritative Decision	86
Comprehensiveness in Conception of Processes of Authoritative Decision	86
The Relation to Community Processes	88
The Explicit Postulation of Basic Public Order Goals	90
The Performance of Intellectual Tasks	91
The Clarification of Community Policies	92
The Description of Past Trends in Decision	92
The Analysis of Factors Affecting Decision	92
The Projection of Future Trends	93
The Invention and Evaluation of Policy Alternatives	93
2. The Social Setting of Human Rights: The Process of Deprivation and Nonfulfillment of Values	94
Participants	96
Organized Groups	97
Nation-States	98
International Governmental Organizations	100
Political Parties	101
Pressure Groups	101
Private Associations	102
Terror Groups and Gangs	106
Unorganized Groups	107
Culture	107
Class	109
Interest	110
Personality	110
Crisis	113
Perspectives	113
Demands	114
Identifications	115
Expectations	117
Contending Systems of Public Order	119
Situations	119
Geographic Features	120
Temporal Features	121
Institutionalization	123
Crisis	126
Base Values	130

Strategies	135
Outcomes	138
3. Claims Made to Authority for the Protection of Human Rights	143
Claimants	145
Perspectives	145
Specific Types of Claim	146
Claims Relating to the Process of Deprivation and Nonfulfillment of Values	146
Claims Relating to Respect	146
Claims Relating to Power	149
Claims Relating to Enlightenment	151
Claims Relating to Well-Being	152
Claims Relating to Wealth	154
Claims Relating to Skill	155
Claims Relating to Affection	156
Claims Relating to Rectitude	157
Claims Relating to Permissible Derogation from Established Standards	158
Claims Relating to Crises in Security	158
Claims Relating to Crises in Power	158
Claims Relating to Crises in Respect	158
Claims Relating to Crises in Enlightenment	158
Claims Relating to Crises in Well-Being	158
Claims Relating to Crises in Wealth	158
Claims Relating to Crises in Skill	159
Claims Relating to Crises in Affection	159
Claims Relating to Crises in Rectitude	159
Claims Relating to the Constitutive Process of Authoritative Decision	159
Claims Relating to Participation	159
Claims Relating to Perspectives	159
Claims Relating to Situations	159
Claims Relating to Base Values	159
Claims Relating to Strategies	159
Claims Relating to Outcomes	159
Intelligence	159
Promotion (Recommendation)	159
Prescription	159
Invocation	159
Application	159
Termination	159

Appraisal	159
Claims Relating to Effects	159
The Context of Conditions	159
4. The Global Constitutive Process of Authoritative Decision	161
The Major Features of Contemporary Constitutive Process	167
Participation	167
Nation-States	168
International Governmental Organizations	170
Political Parties	173
Pressure Groups	174
Private Associations	175
The Individual	176
Perspectives	179
Arenas	185
Establishment	186
Diplomatic	186
Parliamentary-Diplomatic	187
Parliamentary	188
Adjudicative	189
Executive	190
Access	192
Compulsoriness	199
Base Values	207
Authority	207
Effective Control	217
Strategies	219
The Diplomatic Instrument	220
The Ideological Instrument	223
The Economic Instrument	227
The Military Instrument	236
Outcomes	248
The Intelligence Function	248
The Promoting Function	256
The Prescribing Function	261
The Invoking Function	278
The Applying Function	289
The Terminating Function	299
The Appraising Function	307
The Human Rights Prescriptions as an Emerging Global Bill of Rights	313
Prescription	320
Application	332

The United Nations and Its Organs	332
Nation-States and Their Officials	335
Unilateral Acts	335
Agreements	338
Non-Governmental Actors	350
Invocation	357
Termination	360
Part II. The Clarification of General
Community Policies	365
5. The Basic Policies of a Comprehensive Public Order of
Human Dignity	367
The Observational Standpoint: Identification with the
Whole of Humankind	368
The Perspectives of a Comprehensive World Public
Order: Clarifying Policies	373
The Postulation of the Goal Values of Human Dignity	375
Postulated Goal Values in Social Process	378
Preferred Policies Relating to the World Process of
Value Fulfillment and Deprivation	381
Preferences Relating to Respect	381
Preferences Relating to Power	383
Preferences Relating to Enlightenment	387
Preferences Relating to Well-Being	389
Preferences Relating to Wealth	393
Preferences Relating to Skill	395
Preferences Relating to Affection	396
Preferences Relating to Rectitude	398
Postulated Goal Values in Constitutive Process	399
Preferred Policies Relating to World Constitutive
Process	400
Participation in Decision-Making	400
Representativeness	400
Responsibility	401
Perspectives	401
Demands	401
Identifications	402
Expectations	402
Arenas	402
Establishment	402
Access	402
Open	402
Compulsory	402

Bases of Power	403
Authority	403
Control	403
Strategies	403
Outcomes	404
Aggregate Consequences	404
Rationality	404
Efficiency	404
Inclusivity	405
Comprehensiveness and Integration	405
Particular Functions (Types of Decisions)	405
The Intelligence Function	405
The Promotional Function	406
The Prescribing Function	406
The Invoking Function	406
The Applying Function	407
The Terminating Function	407
The Appraising Function	408
The Conception of Common Interest	408
The Accommodation of Interests in Particular Instances	415
Principles of Content	419
Principles Relating to the Prescribing Process	419
Principles Relating to the Process of Claim	420
Principles Relating to the Process of Decision	420
Principles of Procedure	420
The Contextual Principle	420
The Principle of Economy	420
The Principle of Manifest (Provisional) Focus	420
The Principle of Clarified Focus	421
The Principle of Observing Trends in Past Experience	421
The Principle of Realistic Orientation in Factors Affecting Decision	421
The Principle of Observing the Constraints of Future Probabilities	421
The Principle of Evaluating and Inventing Options in Decision	422
The Significance of Past Trends	423
The Analysis of Factors Conditioning Trends	428
The Projection of Probable Future Developments	436
The Invention and Evaluation of Alternatives: Looking Toward an Optimum Public Order of Human Dignity	440

Part III. Trends in Decision and Conditioning
Factors: Claims Relating to Respect	449
6. Respect as the Core Value of Human Rights	451
7. Claims Relating to Fundamental Freedom of Choice	468
The Eradication of Slavery	473
Factual Background	473
Basic Community Policies	481
Trends in Decision	482
Appraisal and Recommendations	505
The Elimination of Caste	508
The Elimination of Apartheid	521
Factual Background	521
Basic Community Policies	531
Trends in Decision	532
8. Claims Relating to a Basic Equality of Opportunity and Freedom from Discrimination	561
9. Claims Relating to Racial Discrimination	569
Factual Background	569
Basic Community Policies	577
Trends in Decision	581
10. The Outlawing of Sex-Based Discrimination	612
Factual Background	612
Basic Community Policies	623
Trends in Decision	625
Proposals for Application	650
11. Claims Relating to Freedom from Religious Discrimination	653
Factual Background	653
Basic Community Policies	661
Trends in Decision	665
The Inclusive Context of Religious and Other Basic Freedoms of Belief	687
12. Claims for Freedom from Discrimination because of Non-Conforming Political Opinion	690
Factual Background	690
Basic Community Policies	697
Trends in Decision	702
Future Developments	710
13. Claims for Freedom from Discrimination in Choice of Language	713
Factual Background	713
Basic Community Policies	720
Trends in Decision	722

Pre-United Nations Protections	722
Protections under the United Nations	724
Regional Protections: The Belgian Linguistic Cases	729
National Protections	732
Future Developments	736
14. The Protection of Aliens from Discrimination: State Responsibility Conjoined with Human Rights	737
Factual Background	738
Basic Community Policies	742
Trends in Decision	745
The Future of Protection	776
15. The Protection of the Aged from Discrimination	779
Factual Background	779
Basic Community Policies	782
Trends in Decision	786
Future Developments	795
Part IV. Future Prospects	797
16. The Aggregate Interest in Shared Respect and Human Rights: The Harmonization of Public Order and Civic Order	799
Claims Relating to Comprehensive Public Order	802
Factual Background	802
Basic Community Policies	804
Trends in Decision	805
Claims Relating to Civic Order (Including Privacy)	815
Factual Background	815
Basic Community Policies	823
Trends in Decision	829
The Future of Human Rights in Public and Civic Order	857
Appendix Nationality and Human Rights: The Protection of the Individual in External Arenas	861
Delimitation of the Problem	861
The Clarification of General Community Policy	863
Trends in Decision and Conditioning Factors	866
Claims by the Individual to a Protecting State	866
Claims Relating to the Conferment of Nationality	878
Claims Relating to Withdrawal of Nationality	888
Voluntary Expatriation	889
Withdrawal with Consent (Genuine or Constructive) for Promoting Harmonious Relations between States	895
Withdrawal without Consent as Punishment	900

Claims Relating to Statelessness	920
Minimization of Statelessness	924
Statelessness at Birth	927
Statelessness Subsequent to Birth	929
Mitigations of Statelessness	935
Claims Relating to Multiple Nationality	941
Appraisal and Recommendations	953
Table of Cases	959
Name Index	962
Subject Index	995