

THE BLACK IMAGE
IN THE WHITE MIND

*The Debate on Afro-American
Character and Destiny,
1817-1914*

GEORGE M. FREDRICKSON

1817

HARPER & ROW, PUBLISHERS

New York, Evanston, San Francisco, London

Contents

Acknowledgments / ix

Preface / xi

Chapter One / 1

Prejudice and Reformism: The Colonization Idea and the Abolitionist Response, 1817–1840

Chapter Two / 43

Slavery and Race: The Southern Dilemma

Chapter Three / 71

Science, Polygenesis, and the Proslavery Argument

Chapter Four / 97

Uncle Tom and the Anglo-Saxons: Romantic Racialism
in the North

Chapter Five / 130

White Nationalism: “Free Soil” and the Ideal of Racial Homogeneity

Chapter Six / 165

Race and Reconstruction

Chapter Seven / 198

The New South and the New Paternalism, 1877-1890

Chapter Eight / 228

The Vanishing Negro: Darwinism and the Conflict of the Races

Chapter Nine / 256

The Negro as Beast: Southern Negrophobia at the Turn of the Century

Chapter Ten / 283

Accommodationist Racism and the Progressive Mentality

Chapter Eleven / 320

Conclusion and Epilogue

Index / 333