

Factional Politics and Democratization

edited by

RICHARD GILLESPIE, MICHAEL WALLER and
LOURDES LÓPEZ NIETO

FRANK CASS • LONDON

Contents

Introduction: Factions, Party Management and Political Development	Michael Waller and Richard Gillespie	1
Party Systems, Factionalism and Patterns of Democratization: Cross-National Comparisons in Southern Europe	Geoffrey Pridham	8
The Centre-Right in Spain, 1976–82	Lourdes López Nieto	31
Factionalism, the Left and the Transition to Democracy in Spain	Richard Gillespie	45
Party Factionalism and Democratization in Portugal	David Corkill	64
From Factionalism to Autocracy: PASOK's De-radicalization during the Regime Transition of the 1970s	Konstantinos Ifantis	77
Party Factionalism in New Small Southern European Democracies: Some Comparative Findings from the Portuguese and Greek Experiences (1974–82)	José M. Magone	90
Poland and Eastern Europe: Perspectives on Party Factions and Factionalism	Paul G. Lewis	102
Factions and Factionalism in Hungary's New Party System	Bill Lomax	125
Factionalism in Parliamentary Parties in the Czech Republic: A Concept and Some Empirical Findings	Petr Kopecký	138
Making and Breaking: Factions in the Process of Party Formation in Bulgaria	Michael Waller	152
Pernicious Party Factionalism as a Constant of Transitions to Democracy in Turkey	Huri Türsan	168
Conclusions		185
Notes on Contributors		189
Index		191
