Contents

Preface

Chapter 1. The Jurisprudential Niche of Law and Economics 3

Introduction 3

The Present Situation in Legal-Economic Scholarship 4

The Law in Law and Economics 5

The Economics in Law and Economics 13

The Logic of Law and Economics 21

Conclusion 24

Appendix to Chapter 1 25

Efficiency: Edgeworth Box Analysis 25

The Compensation Principle: Kaldor-Hicks Efficiency 45

Chapter 2. Chicago Law and Economics 51

Introduction 51

Fundamental Building Blocks of the Chicago Approach 57

Chicago Law and Economics at Work 61

An Aside: The New Haven School of Law and Economics 79

Chapter 3. Public Choice Theory 84

Introduction 84

Methodological “Closure” 86

Public Choice Theory—Homo Economicus 87

Contractarian Public Choice Theory—Catallaxy 94

Rent-Seeking Behavior 96

An Aside: The Modern Republican Civic Tradition and Public Choices 97

Chapter 4. Institutional Law and Economics 101

Introduction 101

Central Themes: Evolution, Interdependence, and Order 112

Rights, Power, and Government 115

The Problematic Nature of Efficiency 118

Comparative Institutional Analysis 121

Applications of the Institutional Approach 123
CONTENTS

Chapter 5. Neoinstitutional Law and Economics
- Introduction
  - The Legal-Economic Analysis of Institutional Environments
  - The Legal-Economic Analysis of Institutional Arrangements

Chapter 6. Critical Legal Studies
- Introduction
- Early Predecessors to CLS: Its Origins
- Fundamental Elements of CLS Analysis

Chapter 7. Continuous Development and Continuing Concerns
- Continuous Development
- Continuing Concerns in Legal-Economic Policy

Notes

Bibliography

Name Index

Subject Index