dandelon.com
© 2008 AGI-Information Management Consultants
May be used for personal purporses only or by libraries associated to dandelon.com network.

International e-Business Marketing

Richard Fletcher, Jim Bell and Rod McNaughton

lllBibliothek

THOMSON

Australia • Canada • Mexico • Singapore • Spain • United Kingdom • United States

Contents

List of figures viii
List of tables x
List of case studies xii

I The nature of e-business 1

1 Introduction: e-business, marketing strategy and the international environment 3

The Internet 3
What is e-business? 5
The scope of e-business initiatives 6
The dot.com era 10
Marketing and the Internet 13
The internationalization of Internet companies 17
A model of international e-business marketing 18

2 The Internet and its impact on international marketing 22

What is the Internet? 22
Adoption of the Internet 24
The incidence of e-business 27
The Internet and international marketing 29
Buyer behaviour in the online environment 33
Advantages and disadvantages of applying e-business to international marketing 39
The Internet and global business strategy 42

3 The Internet and the e-value chain 50

The virtual value chain in the international environment 50
International value chains 52
International information chains 55
Netchising 56
Reaching the customer 57
Is e-business a paradigm shift or just a technology change? 60
Conclusion 63

II International marketing strategy and e-business 69

4 The Internet, foreign market entry, internationalization and globalization 71
Internet issues and foreign market entry 71
The Internet as a change agent in international markets 78
Internationalization in the electronic age 82
Globalization 90

5 International competitive strategy in the electronic environment 102
Introduction 102
Effects of e-business on international competitiveness 103
Applicability of traditional competitive models to the Internet environment 107
Impact of e-business marketing models on international competitiveness 110
Summary 114

6 Relationships, networks and strategic alliances in an Internet world 124
Introduction 124
Management of relationships and trust 126
Internet networks and physical networks 132
Strategic alliances in marketspace 135
Summary 138

III The international environment of e-business 145

7 Legal and tax issues in the global electronic environment 147
Introduction 147
Legal issues in the electronic environment 148
Intellectual property issues and other problems in marketspace 153
Marketspace and national law 158
The Internet and taxation 160
Summary 162

8 The political minefield of marketspace 170
Introduction 170
General issues 171
Impact on government of marketspace transactions 171
International trade diplomacy 176
The Internet and national sovereignty 179

9 Accommodating culture in international business strategy 187
Introduction 187
Dimensions of culture and the Internet 189
Cultural concepts and the Internet 190
Hofstede, Trompenaars and Internet adoption 193
Cultural aspects of consumer behaviour and the Internet 198
Summary 205

IV Marketing tactics and e-business 211

10 Products, services and pricing in marketspace 213
Products and services in marketspace 213
Product innovation 216
Business and professional services and the Internet 223
Adapting the offering to global e-business 228
Pricing in marketspace 230
Summary 233

11 International e-business distribution and logistics 239
International e-business distribution 239
International Internet exchanges and auctions 244
Distribution channels in marketspace 248
International logistics issues and e-business 255
Value chain configuration decisions in e-business distribution 258

12 Effective international promotion strategies using the Internet 266
Introduction 266
Communication models in marketspace 267
Promotional strategy using the web 268
Effective web sites 274
Promoting the web site 276
Promotion on the web 279
Direct marketing via the web 280
Other issues 285
Conclusion 288

Index 295