

Concepts, Contexts, Cases

Henry Mintzberg

McGill University

Joseph Lampel

City University, London

James Brian Quinn

Dartmouth College

Sumantra Ghoshal

London Business School

Acknowledgments viii

Introduction ix

SECTION I STRATEGY 1

CHAPTER 1 Strategies 2

- 1.1 Five Ps for Strategy 3
- 1.2 Strategies for Change 10
- 1.3 What Is Strategy? 16
- 1.4 Reflecting on the Strategy Process 22

CHAPTER 2 Strategists 30

- 2.1 The Manager's Job 32
- 2.2 Artists, Craftsmen, and Technocrats 46
- 2.3 Good Managers Don't Make Policy Decisions 52
- 2.4 The Leader's New Work: Building Learning Organizations
- 2.5 In Praise of Middle Managers 66

CHAPTER 3 Formulating Strategy 70

- 3.1 The Concept of Corporate Strategy 72
- 3.2 Evaluating Business Strategy 80
- 3.3 Strategic Intent 88

CF1	CHAPTER 4	Analyzing Strategy	92
4.1		How Competitive Forces Shape Strategy	94
4.2		Looking Inside for Competitive Advantage	102
4.3		Sustaining Superior Performance: Commitments and Capabilities
4.4		Competitive Maneuvering	112
4.5		Generic Strategies	115
4.6		A Guide to Strategic Positioning	127

CHAPTER 5	Strategy Formation	139
5.1	Crafting Strategy	141
5.2	Strategy as Strategic Decision Making	149
5.3	The Honda Effect	152
5.4	Honda Mythology and the Strategy Industry	160

CHAPTER 6	Strategic Change	166
6.1	Transforming Organizations	168
6.2	Convergence and Upheaval: Managing the Unsteady Pace of Organizational Evolution	176
6.3	Logical Incrementalism: Managing Strategy Formation	183
6.4	The Crescendo Model of Rejuvenation	189

SECTION II FORCES 199

CHAPTER 7	Cognition	200
7.1	The Dangers of Objectivity	201
7.2	Strategy as Cognition	203
CHAPTER 8	Organization	207
8.1	The Structuring of Organizations	209
8.2	Strategy and Organization Planning	226
8.3	The Design of New Organizational Forms	234

CHAPTER 9	Technology	242
9.1	Customizing Customization	243
9.2	Avoiding the Pitfalls of Emerging Technologies	248

CHAPTER 10	Collaboration	256
	10.1 Collaborating to Compete	257
	10.2 Why Create Alliances	261
	10.3 Creating Knowledge Through Collaboration	267
CHAPTER 11	Globalization	272
	11.1 Managing Across Borders: New Organizational Responses	273
	11.2 Global Strategy... in a World of Nations	280
	11.3 Seven Myths Regarding Global Strategy	289
CHAPTER 12	Values	294
	12.1 New Values, Morality, and Strategic Ethics	295
	12.2 Leadership in Administration	300
	12.3 A New Manifesto for Management	303
SECTION III	CONTEXTS	311
CHAPTER 13	Managing Start-Ups	312
	13.1 The Entrepreneurial Organization	315
	13.2 Competitive Strategy in Emerging Industries	323
	13.3 How Entrepreneurs Craft Strategies that Work	326
CHAPTER 14	Managing Maturity	334
	14.1 The Machine Organization	336
	14.2 Cost Dynamics: Scale and Experience Effects	350
	14.3 Innovation in Bureaucracy	356
	14.4 Challenges to Organizations and Information Technology	361
CHAPTER 15	Managing Experts	370
	15.1 The Professional Organization	372
	15.2 Managing Intellect	383
	15.3 Balancing the Professional Service Firm	390
	15.4 Covert Leadership: Notes on Managing Professionals	398

CHAPTER 16	Managing Innovation	403
	16.1 The Innovative Organization	405
	16.2 Managing in the Whitespace	419
	16.3 Anticipating the Cellular Form	423
	16.4 The Core Competencies of Project-Based Firms	426
CHAPTER 17	Managing Diversity	432
	17.1 The Diversified Organization	434
	17.2 Managing Large Groups in the East and West	445
	17.3 From Competitive Advantage to Corporate Strategy	451
CHAPTER 18	Managing Otherwise	460
	18.1 Beyond Configuration	462
	18.2 Organizational Adaptation	468
	18.3 Strategy Innovation and the Quest for Value	471
	18.4 How We Went Digital Without a Strategy	475
	18.5 Managing Quietly	479
	Bibliography for Readings	484
	Name Index	487
	Subject Index	489