

OECD Territorial Reviews

Bergamo, Italy

OECD

ORGANISATION FOR ECONOMIC CO-OPERATION AND DEVELOPMENT

Table of Contents

Assessments and Recommendations	11
--	-----------

Part I

Socio-economic Overview of the Province of Bergamo

Chapter 1 Human Geography	33
1 Settlement, accessibility and infrastructures	33
2 Demographic trends	35
3 Wealth and territorial disparities	40
Notes	44
Chapter 2 Economy in General	45
1 Economic and production structure	45
2 Competitiveness	47
3 Enterprise creation	52
Notes	54
Chapter 3 Labour Market	55
1 Current situation and trends	55
2 Particular characteristics	56
3 Unemployment	60
Notes	62
Chapter 4 Economy by Sector	63
1 Industry	63
2 Service industries and tourism	67
3 Agriculture	68
Notes	72
Conclusion	73

Part II

Main Policy Issues

Chapter 1 Spatial Planning and Transport Infrastructure	77
Introduction	77
1 Spatial and transport policies in the province of Bergamo	78
2 Project implementation	82
3 Planning priorities, co-ordination and co-operation	85

Conclusions and recommendations	88
Notes	92
Chapter 2 Education, Innovation, and Economic Performance	93
Introduction	93
1 Education and economic development some recent findings	94
2 Education, innovation and economic performance in the Province of Bergamo	102
Conclusions and recommendations	116
Chapter 3 Tourism and Sustainable Growth	119
Introduction	119
1 Tourism as a factor of development	120
2 Assets and threats for tourist development in the province of Bergamo	123
3 Coherent tourism development	129
Conclusions and recommendations	133
Chapter 4 Decentralisation and Territorial Governance	137
Introduction	137
1 Territorial governance background	138
2 Collaboration in provincial policy making	146
Conclusions and recommendations	155
Annex The IBA in the Ruhr an experiment towards promoting regional creativity	159
Notes	162

Part III

Closeness to Metropolitan Areas: Benchmarks and Best Practices

Introduction	167
Chapter 1 Providence, Rhode Island, United States	169
1 Regional context	169
2 The regional economies	171
3 The Providence development strategy	174
4 The institutional framework public private development	176
5 Measuring performance How to determine success	179
Conclusions	180
Chapter 2 Coventry, West Midlands, United Kingdom	185
1 The regional context	185
2 Institutional structure and territorial governance	187
3 Coventry and its economy	191
4 Spatial development the Unitary Development Plans	193
5 The West Midlands Regional Economic Strategy	195
6 Coventry's economic development policies	195
7 Coventry's spatial development policies	199
8 Effects of Coventry's proximity to Birmingham	199
Conclusions	200

Chapter 3 Akron, Ohio, United States	203
1    The regional context	203
2    Regional co-operation in a federal country	204
3    Recent economic history the comeback region	208
4    The Cleveland-Akron economy	209
5    Addressing a regionalised labour market	213
Notes	217

Bibliography	219
--------------	-----

List of Tables

1    Migration trends within the Province of Bergamo	37
2    Population trends, 1981-91	38
3    Age structure of the population, 1981-97	39
4    Non-European immigrants with stay permits, 1994-98	40
5    Disposable income, consumption and savings estimates, 1998.	40
6    The geographical belts, 1996	41
7    Disposable income per capita and per household	42
8    Household consumption, 1994	43
9    Main indicators of agriculture in Bergamo	49
10    Trade balances and import and export change, 1989-98	50
11    Bergamo's exports by sector, 1985-99	51
12    International specialisation in Bergamo, Lombardy and Italy, 1985-99	51
13    Participation, employment and unemployment rates, 1999	56
14    Average annual gross income per activity, sector and qualification, 1998	58
15    Manufacturing firms by size, 1996	63
16    Bergamo plants in partly or totally foreign owned companies by sector	65
17    Manufacturing local units and workers	66
18    Farms by altitude and type	69
19    Final agricultural output, 1993-99	70
20    Strengths and weaknesses of the Bergamo economy	74
21    Land use typical ratios	78
22    Education supply in senior high schools	102
23    Employment by educational qualification	104
24    Protected areas in the Province of Bergamo	125
25    Dwellings used for vacations in the provinces of Lombardy	127
26    Numbers of visitors to the Lotto exhibition	128
27    Strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats of Bergamo's tourism	129
28    Current account income per capita, 1997	140
29    Current account income breakdown, 1997	140
30    The Providence economy restructures, 1985-95	172
31    Wages and employment in Rhode Island and Massachusetts	173
32    Personal income per capita	174
33    Employment structure in Coventry, Birmingham and the West Midlands	192

List of Figures

1    Net population change, 1990-97	36
2    Birth rate, 1990-98	37
3    Elderly index, 1981-98	39

4	Employment state and change, 1981-96	46
5	GDP by economic sector in Bergamo, 1997	48
6	GDP by economic sector in Italy, 1997	48
7	Employment by economic sector in Bergamo, 1997	48
8	Employment distribution in Bergamo, 1997	49
9	Bergamo's quota of regional exports, 1985-99	50
10	Net rate of total enterprise creation, 1991-99	52
11	Net rate of sectoral enterprise creation, 1995-99	53
12	Unemployment rates by gender, 1993-99	60
13	Total unemployment rates, 1993-99	61
14	Rates of rural activity in Bergamo's municipalities	68
15	Gross agricultural income in the local authorities of Bergamo	71
16	Correlation between secondary attainment and economic performance	95
17	Correlation between R&D expenditure and patent applications	97
18	Choice of university studies	108
19	Gross rate of enterprise creation in public and private sector services	113
20	Fiscal autonomy percentage ratio and trends	141
21	Local property tax change per capita	142
22	Providence and Boston	170
23	Coventry and Birmingham	186
24	Akron and Cleveland	204
25	CMSA's and national annual unemployment rates, 1972-88	209
26	Employment density for all industries in Cleveland-Akron CMSA, 1998	210
27	Employment density for manufacturing in Cleveland-Akron CMSA, 1998	211

List of Boxes

1	The example of "Zingonia"	79
2	The example of the community of Isola Bergamasca	80
3	Principles for learning cities and regions	101
4	Negotiated planning tools for territorial policy	149
5	POINT and Servitec	152
6	The Spanish Mancomunals flexible horizontal co-operation and functional integration	154
7	Measuring performance the community scorecard	181
8	Benchmarking for regional excellence the "World Class Partnership"	198
9	Cleveland tomorrow a private initiative to revive the regional economy	213