

WBI DEVELOPMENT STUDIES

Resolution of Financial Distress

An International Perspective on the Design of Bankruptcy Laws

Edited by
Stijn Claessens
Simeon Djankov
and
Ashoka Mody

The World Bank
Washington, D.C.

Contents

Foreword vii

Contributors ix

Resolution of Financial Distress: An Overview xv

Stijn Claessens, Simeon Djankov, and Ashoka Mody, The World Bank

Insolvency Regimes: Current Interest and Principles xvii

Systemic Distress and Corporate Restructuring xxii

Conclusions xxx

References xxxi

1. Bankruptcy Laws: Basic Economic Principles 1

Joseph E. Stiglitz, Stanford University

Key Principles 2

Efficiency and Incentive Issues 7

Seller Beware 13

Implications for Policy 13

The Theory of Systemic Bankruptcy 16

Conclusion 21

References 22

2. Bankruptcy Procedures in Countries Undergoing
Financial Crises 25

Michelle J. White, University of Michigan

Economic Issues in Corporate Bankruptcy 25

Bankruptcy and Entrepreneurial Activity 39

Conclusion 43

References 43

3. Systemic Corporate Distress: A Legal Perspective 47
Jay Lawrence Westbrook, The University of Texas at Austin
 - The Reform Movement 48
 - Elements of Reform 50
 - Special Rules for Systemic Distress 58
 - Cross-Disciplinary Research 60
 - References 63

4. Creditor Protection and Bankruptcy Law Reform 65
Rafael La Porta and Florencio Lopez-de-Silanes, Harvard University
 - Content of Bankruptcy Laws around the World 66
 - Enforcement of Laws around the World 72
 - Consequences of Creditor Protection in Financial Markets 76
 - Real Consequences of Creditor Protection 78
 - Reforming Bankruptcy Procedures 80
 - Conclusion 85
 - Appendix 4A. Definitions of Variables 86
 - References 88

5. Corporate Debt Restructuring: Auctions Speak Louder Than Words 91
Donald B. Hausch, University of Wisconsin, and S. Ramachandran, World Bank
 - Market-Based Bankruptcy 94
 - The Proposed ACCORD 95
 - Implementing ACCORD 97
 - Additional Considerations 202
 - Conclusion 205
 - References 205

6. Alphatec Electronics PCL 207
Perry Pagan, C. Fritz Poley, and Stuart Gilson, Harvard Business School
 - History of Alphatec Electronics and The Alphatec Group 209
 - Alphatec in Distress 223
 - The First Restructuring Plan 128
 - The New Thai Bankruptcy Law 234
 - The Rehabilitation Plan 236
 - Postscript 245

7. Corporate Debt Restructuring in a Systemic Financial Crisis: Mexico's Experience, 1996-98 249
Alberto Mulds, Fondo Bancario de Protection al Ahorro
 Corporate Debt Restructuring, 1995-97 252
 FOBAPROA's Role as a Restructuring Agent through its Corporate Asset Recovery Unit 260
 Key Lessons from Mexico's 1996-98 Restructuring
 Experience 264
8. Reconstruction Finance Corporation Assistance to Financial Intermediaries and Commercial and Industrial Enterprises in the United States, 1932-37 267
Joseph R. Mason, Drexel University, LeBow College of Business
 RFC Background: Politics, Funding, and Operations 168
 RFC Assistance to Financial Institutions and Commercial and Industrial Enterprises 272
 Summary and Conclusions 202
 References 202
9. Japan Confronts Corporate Restructuring 205
Arthur J. Alexander, Japan Economic Institute
 The Case for Restructuring 206
 Managing Financial Distress 222
 Conclusions 226
 References 227
10. Financial Restructuring in East Asia: Halfway There? 229
Stijn Claessens, Simeon Djankov, and Daniela Klingebiel, World Bank
 Was the East Asian Crisis Unique? 229
 East Asian Crisis: Similar Origins to Previous Crises,
 but Difference in Scale 230
 Steep Decline and Rapid Recovery 230
 Corporate Restructuring Is Gathering Speed 243
 The Risk of an Unsustainable Recovery 252
 References 258

11. The Politics of Corporate and Financial Restructuring: A Comparison of Korea, Thailand, and Indonesia	262
Stephan Haggard, University of California, San Diego
Financial and Corporate Restructuring: Political Issues and Empirical Patterns	263
Financial and Corporate Restructuring: Political Determinants	268
Korea	272
Thailand	282
Indonesia	292
Conclusion	302
References	302
12. The Role of Cross-Border Mergers and Acquisitions in Asian Restructuring	305
Ashoka Mody and Shoko Negishi, World Bank
Cross-Border M&A: Trends, Motives, and Impacts	306
East Asian Financial Distress and Recovery	324
Cross-Border M&As in East Asian Restructuring	322
Policy Implications	332
Conclusion	335
References	337
13. Asset Management Companies	342
Daniela Klingebiel, World Bank
The Centralized Versus the Decentralized Approach	342
The Different Types of Asset Management Companies Evidence	346
Lessons from Cross-Country Experience	355
Appendix 13.A. Main Characteristics of Asset Management Companies	362
Bibliography and Reference List	372
Index	382