

THE DRAGON MILLENNIUM

Chinese Business in the Coming World Economy

EDITED BY
Frank-Jiirgen Richter

QUORUM BOOKS
Westport, Connecticut • London

Contents

Tables and Figures	vii
Preface	ix
Introduction: Chinese Visionaries Predict China's Future
' Organization of Business	xi
Frank-Jiirgen Richer
I. Economic Policy and the Development of the Firm
1. Chinese State-Owned Enterprises under the Dual Influence of the Government and the Market	3
David Li
2. The Evolution of Chinese Township and Village Enterprises	13
Qi Hantang
3. The Future of Private Enterprises in China	35
Wang Xueli and Zhang Lijun
II. Outlook on Selected Industries
4. The Structure and Development of China's Financial Markets	47
Chen Baizhu and Feng Yi
5. The Different Behaviors of Chinese Automakers in Technology Introduction and Assimilation	59
Chen Jin
6. The Oil Dragon's Move: What It Means for China and the World	79
Deng Shengliang and Xu Xiaojie

III. Competition, Cooperation, and Capitalism

Challenges of Competing in China for Multinationals Edward Tse	93
8. Project and Location Selection in China: Lessons for Foreign Companies Luo Yadong	107
9. The Internationalization of Chinese Enterprises: Evidence from the United Kingdom Lu Tong	125 i
IV. The Lure of Chinese Management
10. Chinese Small Business Management: A Tentative Theory Siu Wai-Sum	149
11. Raising the Dragon: Adaptive Entrepreneurship and Chinese Economic Development Cheah Hock Beng	163
12. Developing Virtuous Corporations with Chinese Characteristics for the Twenty-First Century Ip Po-Keung	183
Index	207
About the Editor and Contributors	215