

SPIN CYCLE

How RESEARCH IS USED IN POLICY DEBATES
THE CASE OF CHARTER SCHOOLS

JEFFREY R. HENIG

Russell Sage Foundation • New York
The Century Foundation • New York

Contents

	About the Author
	Acknowledgments	ix
Chapter 1	The New York Times/AFT Charter School Controversy	1
Chapter 2	Informed Democracy: An Ideal and Its Skeptics	15
Chapter 3	How Cool Research Gets in Hot Waters: Privatization, School Choice, and Charter Schools	33
Chapter 4	Research in the Public Eye: Personalization, Polarization, and Politicization.	56
Chapter 5	Research Outside the Spotlight: Accumulation, Convergence, Contingency	90
Chapter 6	Follow the Money: The Role of Funding in the Politicization of Education Research	128
Chapter 7	How Research Reaches the Public Ear: Old Media and New	177
Chapter 8	Can the Ideal of Informed Democracy Be Revived?	217
Appendix 1	List of Those Interviewed	246
Appendix 2	Diana Jean Schemo, "Charter Schools Trail in Results, U.S. Data Reveals," New York Times (Late Edition, East Coast), August 17, 2004, p. A1	248

Appendix 3	"Charter School Evaluation Reported by The New York Times Fails to Meet Professional Standards"	<	252
	Notes		255
	References		273
	Index		287