

DON'T BLAME
THE SHORTS

WHY SHORT SELLERS ARE ALWAYS
BLAMED FOR MARKET CRASHES AND
HOW HISTORY IS REPEATING ITSELF

ROBERT SLOAN

New York Chicago San Francisco Lisbon London
Madrid v Mexico City- Milan New Delhi San Juan
Seoul Singapore Sydney Toronto

CONTENTS

	Preface	ix
	Acknowledgments . . . "	xix
Chapter 1	The Great Debate: 1790-1800	1
Chapter 2	Wall Street and Main Street: The Populist Argument Is Born: 1830-1907	17
Chapter 3	Congress Attacks the Money Trusts: 1907-1920	27
Chapter 4	The Markets Before and After 1929	39
Chapter 5	A Lurid Tale of Blackmail, Spies, and Lies: 1932	49
Chapter 6	Mr. Whitney Heads to Washington: 1932	63
Chapter 7	The First Prime Broker Was Actually the NYSE	85
Chapter 8	The Senate Tries Again with the Pecora Commission: 1932-1941	97
Chapter 9	United States v. Henry S. Morgan: 1947-1953	115

Chapter 10	Yesterday as the Day Before: 1987-Present	123
	Epilogue	141
	Appendix: New York Times Articles	161
	• "Vote Wide Inquiry on Short Selling" March 4, 1932	163
	• "Bears Planned Raid, Senators Were Told" _ April 9, 1932	166
	• "Bear Raid Inquiry Opens" April 11, 1932	169
	• "List of Shorts on the Stock Exchange on April 8 as Given Out by the Senate" April 21, 1932	177
	Glossary	179
	Notes	191
	References •	205
	Index	233